CommBank Alpha™ Asset Finance Portal Security

Terms And Conditions

Terms and Conditions

CommBank Alpha™ Asset Finance Portal ("CommBank Alpha™") is Commonwealth Bank of Australia's ("we/us") online digital platform that allows Brokers ("you/your") to quote, create applications and produce documentation on behalf of their customers. Administrators are able to create applications on behalf of Brokers using a unique log-in with the Broker required to submit the application to the Bank.

1.0 Unauthorised Access

You must take adequate precautions to prevent unauthorised users log in access to your computer systems, accounts, and to prevent unauthorised users gaining access to your CommBank Alpha™ service. This includes the use of appropriate anti-'spamming', anti-'key logging' and anti-'virus' software, as well as appropriate personal computer or network 'firewall' protection.

If you fail to take adequate precautions it is possible that unauthorised persons may alter your instructions or give us instructions using your security identification. You are liable for losses resulting from unauthorised transactions or applications facilitated by a breach of your obligations under these terms and conditions (whether by you or any of your authorised users) and from any altered or unauthorised instructions except to the extent such losses are caused by a failure of our security measures, our fraud or negligence or that of our agents. We recommend that you constantly monitor your accounts and service to check that all submissions are accurate and properly authorised by you.

2.0 Notification

You must immediately notify us if you have reason to believe or suspect:

- a. there has been any actual or suspected loss, theft, misuse, misplacement or compromise of your or any of your Broker/Administrator computer systems or hardware used by you or your employees or agents to access CommBank Alpha™;
- b. your log-in or password details have been disclosed to any person or entity other than us;
- c. a transaction instruction has been altered without your approval;
- d. you have breached your obligations regarding confidential information; or
- e. the security of your device has been compromised including in any of the ways described in clause 10.0.

3.0 Choice of passwords

You are liable for losses caused by applications made and instructions given through the use of a password matching your date of birth, name, telephone number or other easily guessed letters and numbers.

4.0 Changing passwords

We will give you instructions to enable you to change your password. It is your responsibility to change your passwords regularly.

5.0 Canceling Security Identification or withholding access

If we reasonably believe that:

- a. your log-in is being used in any way that may cause losses to you or us;
- b. the security of your personal computer or network is compromised;
- c. the security or reliability of our systems are compromised or threatened;
- d. an application sent by you is corrupted; or
- e. your application instructions are at risk of having been altered without your approval,

we can, at any time, without notice, perform the following:

- a. cancel your use of log-in;
- b. withhold your access to CommBank Alpha™; and
- c. refuse to act on your instructions,

and we shall not reinstate use of the cancelled log-in or access to CommBank Alpha™ or resume acceptance of your instructions until the security concern has been resolved to our reasonable satisfaction.

6.0 Deemed authority

You are liable for the acts or omissions in relation to what you enter into CommBank Alpha™. You agree that we can treat any applications made and instructions given using your current log-in as being made with your authority unless you have given us a notice under clause 2.0 a) - e) or otherwise instructed us to cancel the log-in before the instruction was received. You are responsible for the accuracy of applications made and instructions given using your log-in.

7.0 Safekeeping

You are responsible for ensuring that your private log-in details are, at all times, kept safe, and secure and in accordance with our instructions and directions from time to time, and are not disclosed to any other entity or person.

8.0 Additional protection

If you notify us of any unauthorised usage of CommBank Alpha™ you must retain all computers and all other records and information reasonably required to enable a full investigation of your claim.

9.0 Prohibited applications

You must not submit an application:

- a. prohibited by law; or
- b. if you are acting as an agent for a principal that has not been disclosed to us.

10.0 Fraud and disclosure

You are liable for any loss incurred from any unauthorised instructions resulting from any user you have authorised:

- a. committing fraud;
- b. voluntarily disclosing a password;
- c. acting with extreme carelessness in failing to protect the security of all passwords;
- d. recording one or more of the passwords on the outside of a security device; or
- e. keeping a record of one or more of the passwords (without making any reasonable attempt to protect the security of the passwords, such as making a reasonable attempt to disguise the password within another record, hiding the record of the password where it would not be expected to be found, keeping the record of the password in a securely locked container or in password protected device) on the one article, or on several articles, carried with the security device, or likely to be lost or stolen with the device, except to the extent such loss is caused by a failure of our security measures, our fraud or negligence or that of our agents.

11.0 Intellectual Property Rights and licence

You acknowledge that:

- a. you do not obtain any intellectual property rights whatsoever used or embodied in or in connection with CommBank Alpha™; and
