If you have a complaint, contact us in the first instance, we will make a record and give you the name of a contact person who is handling your complaint and a way to contact them. Within 21 days, we will provide a response to the complaint or advise you of the need for more time to complete our investigation. If we are unable to provide a final response to your complaint within 45 days, we will:

- inform you of the reasons for the delay and when we reasonably expect a decision;
- thereafter give you monthly progress updates;
- advise of your right to complain to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA); and
- provide you with AFCA contact details.

The Code of Banking Practice or, from 1 July 2019, the Banking Code of Practice, applies where relevant to your Receivables services if you are a small business as defined in the Code of Banking Practice or the Banking Code of Practice (as the case may be) or an individual.

Anything that we are required to give to you under this Code may be given to you:

- a) in writing, electronically or by telephone;
- b) by telling you that the information is available on a website or other electronic forum; or
- c) as otherwise agreed with you.

However, if the Code specifies the method of communication, then we will comply with that method.

Receivables Terms and Conditions

1. Operation of these terms and conditions

- (a) Subject to clauses 1(b) and 1(d) inclusive:
 - (1) Clauses 2 to 23 set out the terms and conditions upon which we agree to facilitate your participation in Nominated Services;
 - (2) Schedule 1 – BPAY Biller Agreement sets out the additional terms and conditions upon which we agree to facilitate your participation in BPAY Biller;
 - (3) Schedule 2 – Debit User Agreement sets out the additional terms and conditions upon which we agree to facilitate your acceptance of payments made under a direct debit request through Direct Debit (cheque/savings);
- (b) We only agree to facilitate your participation in the Nominated Services. You must have a current CommBiz service to participate in the Nominated Services.
- (c) Payments made to the Nominated Account through Agency Payment Facility, eLockbox or Retail Lockbox using cheque, cash or a Commonwealth Bank of Australia debit account are also governed by terms and conditions of your Nominated Account.
- (d) If Retail Lockbox is a Nominated Service, you must enter into, maintain and comply with your obligations under, an agreement with Australia Post governing the operation of your nominated Australia Post locked bag in form and substance satisfactory to us. The service is only available for locked bags located in Melbourne (VIC) and Silverwater or Parramatta (NSW). For clients based in Tasmania, Western Australia and South Australia, the locked bag will need to be opened in Melbourne. For clients based in other states or territories the locked bag will need to be opened in Silverwater or Parramatta sites.

2. Participation

- (a) In consideration of the payment by you to us of the fees and charges set out in the Pricing Schedule, we agree to facilitate your participation in the Receivables Services on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement.
- (b) You agree to receive payments from your Customers through the Receivables Services.
- (c) You acknowledge that, if we suspect on reasonable grounds that:
 - (1) you are in breach of this agreement; or
 - (2) fraudulent activity is occurring,We may:
 - (1) change your status so that no transactions or services can be processed through the Nominated Services until we are satisfied that allegations of the suspected breach or fraud have been cleared; and/or

- (2) take reasonable action to minimise further fraudulent or erroneous payments being credited to the Nominated Account.

3. Payments to you

- (a) You authorise us to do the following:
 - (1) accept payments from Customers made using Receivables Services for credit to the Nominated Account; and
 - (2) credit and debit to the Nominated Account all amounts contemplated under this agreement including without limitation:
 - payments; and
 - Corrections;whether that payment or Correction occurred before, on or after the date of this agreement.
- (b) You agree that you must do all acts, including without limitation executing any documents and other instruments, and give any consents, necessary to give effect to the authorisation above.
- (c) You may not give us any instruction or direction, whether concerning the operation of their account or otherwise, which is inconsistent with any authorisation or other provision of this agreement, and we are entitled to disregard any such inconsistent instruction or direction.
- (d) All reasonable effort will be made to process Retail Lockbox items, this includes damaged, copied and stapled payment slips. Items deemed unable to be applied will be managed by the Exceptions Items process, where details of the item will be recorded and all items returned to the customer.

4. Your obligations

You must do the following:

- (a) perform your obligations under the Receivables Procedures in relation to us and this agreement with reasonable skill and care;
- (b) maintain each Nominated Account (including the account nominated for the payment of fees and charges under this agreement) and immediately advise us of any changes to a Nominated Account by providing us with a Receivables Change Request form;
- (c) comply with this agreement and the Receivables Procedures and promptly comply with any reasonable direction given by us to you either under this agreement or under the Receivables Procedures;
- (d) establish and maintain an account into which payments may be credited and refunds, Corrections or Customer Claims debited;

- (e) ensure that you:
 - (1) have and maintain adequate procedures and systems for processing Payments;
 - (2) correctly and promptly credit or debit, as the case may be, the amounts of each Payment to the applicable Customer; and
 - (3) store in a manner approved by us, the original records of each Payment received from a Customer for a minimum period of seven years after the last Payment was made;
- (f) not make any warranty or representation in respect of goods or services supplied which may bind us, a Ledger Financial Institution, AusPayNet or the Direct Debit Scheme administered under the BECS Procedures;
- (g) have a fair policy for correction of errors and exchange and return of goods and services where a Customer makes a complaint, or Customer Claim, or where we or a Financial Institution becomes involved in the correction of errors;
- (h) promptly notify us if you are unable to apply payments received by you from Customers to accounts you maintain for your Customers for any reason;
- (i) ensure that information you store in connection with your participation in the Nominated Service is only accessible to people who are authorised by you to manage or view that data and after the period you need to keep the records has ended, destroy the records and any information in a way that ensures any information is unreadable; and
- (k) promptly notify us if any information you have provided to us about you or your business is no longer accurate.

5. Use of logos and trademarks

- (a) You are authorised to use the Nominated Services' logos, trademarks or names on bills and any other related material approved by us for the purposes of advertising your participation in and promotion of the Nominated Services to Customers. You must comply with any written direction received from us in respect of the use of the Nominated Services' logos, trademarks or names. You must not permit any other party to use the Nominated Services' logos, trademarks or names without our written approval.
- (b) You undertake to:
 - (1) inform your Customers, in a manner which is not misleading, how they may use your Nominated Service/s;
 - (2) use only literature or promotional materials provided or approved in advance by us for the above purposes in accordance with the Receivables and BECS Procedures; and

- (3) print the Nominated Services' logos and payment instructions on your Customer bills, until such time as this agreement is terminated.

6. Downloading material from our sites

- (a) Any material developed or provided by us, including logos, marketing material, file specifications and technical specifications, which you download from Bank websites (Bank Material) is owned by us and/or our licensors and may be subject to protection by copyright laws, or laws protecting trademarks and trade. Except as otherwise expressly stated in the Terms and Conditions, you may only use the Bank Material for the purpose of receiving payment through the Receivables Services.
- (b) You acknowledge and agree that:
 - (1) we and/or our licensors retain all intellectual property rights of the Bank Material; and
 - (2) you must not use the Bank Material in any manner that would infringe, violate, dilute or misappropriate any such rights.

7. Uploading material to our sites

- (a) You must ensure that all content you place on our sites is accurate and not misleading or deceptive, does not violate or infringe on the rights of any third party, is not libellous, threatening or obscene and complies with all applicable Australian and international laws and regulations.
- (b) You grant us and our suppliers, and must ensure that all relevant third parties grant to us and our suppliers, without additional cost, an Australia-wide, non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty free, non-transferrable licence to use, reproduce, communicate to the public and adapt all those intellectual property rights attaching to material you uploaded to, or arranged for us to display on our sites (Uploaded Material).
- (c) You warrant that you have all necessary authorities to give us this licence.
- (d) You indemnify us and our suppliers, and shall keep us and our suppliers indemnified, against any claim by a third party that the Uploaded Material breaches a third party's intellectual property.

8. Receivables Procedures

- (a) You agree to be bound by the Receivables Procedures as if they were incorporated into this agreement.
- (b) You acknowledge that we may, by notice in writing, give notice of changes in the Receivables Procedures from time to time, such change as far as it affects you and any subsequent changes in your obligations will take effect from the date specified in that notice and you agree to be bound by such changes as are notified to you as if they were a formal variation of this agreement. If you do not accept the changes, you may terminate this agreement subject to your continuing obligations under clause 12.

- (c) If a provision of this agreement is inconsistent with a provision of the Receivables Procedures, the provision of this agreement prevails to the extent of that inconsistency (but only to the extent of the inconsistency, except to the extent the loss or damage is proven to be caused by our negligence).

9. Indemnity

You indemnify us against any loss or damage suffered ("loss or damage" includes any consequential or economic loss or damage) due to any claim, demand or action of any kind brought against us or any related entity (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) of ours by any person arising directly or indirectly in connection with:

- (a) any claim by a customer of yours for refund of a payment for any reason;
- (b) any claim by any person for any breach by you of any applicable laws or of your obligations under this agreement;
- (c) the performance by us or any third party of the matters set out in this agreement;
- (d) a failure by you to observe any of your obligations under this agreement;
- (e) any fraud, negligence or misrepresentation on the part of you, your employees, agents or independent contractors with respect to the performance of your obligations, or the exercise of any of your rights, under this agreement;
- (f) any use of a logo or mark in breach of this agreement;
- (g) any direct debit by you for which you are unable to produce to us within the required time the original of the Customer's written authorisation of the direct debit or a reliable record of an electronic or telephone authorisation;
- (h) any claim by a third party that material provided to us by you breaches a third party's intellectual property;
- (i) any recourse any person may have against us for any action or omission by us in or arising out of your participation in Receivables Services; or
- (j) any amount that remains unpaid because there are insufficient funds in your Nominated Account to cover all amounts we may debit to that account (or because you do not maintain a Nominated Account).

10. Delays

- (a) You acknowledge that delays might occur in the processing of Payments if:
- (1) a Payment is due to be made on, or the day after, a public holiday or bank holiday;
 - (2) a Payment is received either on a day which is not a Banking Business Day or after the normal close of business on a Banking Business Day;
 - (3) another financial institution delays in processing a Payment or does not comply with its obligations under the relevant payment scheme;
 - (4) you fail to comply with your obligations under the Receivables Procedures or this agreement;
 - (5) our systems are not working;
 - (6) the transaction or file is received after the normal close of business; or
 - (7) there are insufficient funds in your Nominated Account to process the Payment or the applicable limit being exceeded.
- (b) While it is expected that any delay in our performance under this agreement for any reason set out in clause 10(a) will not continue for more than one Banking Business Day, you acknowledge that any such delay may continue for a longer period.
- (c) We will not be in breach of this agreement merely because of a delay of the kind referred to in clause 10(a) or 10(b) and will not be liable to you for any such delay.

11. Termination or cessation

- (a) Either party may:
- (1) terminate this agreement; or
 - (2) declare that any Nominated Service will cease to be a Nominated Service for the purpose of this agreement,
- without cause by giving the other party 30 days written notice to that effect.
- (b) Upon a Termination Event:
- (1) we or you may, at their option, serve upon the other party a notice in writing specifying a date for this termination of this agreement, and clause 11(a) shall not apply to that termination; or
 - (2) if you are in default, we may suspend your participation in any one or more of the Nominated Services, until such time as we revoke that suspension or terminate this agreement under paragraph (1).

- (c) If a Termination Event occurs or you believe a Termination Event is likely to occur, you must notify us immediately.
- (d) Termination of this agreement or the cessation of one or more Nominated Services will not relieve either party of their obligations incurred prior to that termination or cessation, as the case may be, including, without limitation, obligations to make corrections relating to transactions initiated or processed via a Nominated Service on or before the date of termination or cessation, as applicable, obligations to retain records or documents, and the continuing obligations under clause 12.

12. Consequences of termination or cessation

On termination of this agreement or the cessation of all Receivables Services:

- (a) we shall no longer be obliged to accept Payments on your behalf for any reason and you must:
 - (1) immediately stop promoting BPAY and Direct Debit, including immediately ceasing to use the BPAY, the Direct Debit Scheme logo and marks;
 - (2) immediately advise your Customers that they can no longer accept payments from them by means of Receivables Services; and
 - (3) maintain an account with us and promptly process debit entries, corrections, and otherwise comply with your obligations in this agreement. If this agreement has been terminated, the obligations in this paragraph survive that termination for a period of 90 Banking Business Days after the date of termination of this agreement; and
- (b) you must immediately:
 - (1) pay to us all undisputed amounts that have become or do become due and payable to us under this agreement; and
 - (2) on request by us return to us all:
 - information that is to be treated by you as confidential under clause 15(a) and is in a material form all copies of it, and
 - if applicable, all originals or copies of Direct Debit Requests DDR Service Agreements and Direct Debit amendments held by you in connection with a right to debit the account of a Customer including information or records, in a format approved by us, captured or stored electronically in respect of online or web based communications and records of telephone authorisations;that are in your possession or control.

13. Your representation and warranty

- (a) You represent and warrant to us that:
 - (1) you have all necessary power and authority to enter into this agreement and to perform your obligations under it;
 - (2) you will comply with all laws and industry codes applicable to you in your performance of your rights and obligations under this agreement; and
 - (3) all information provided at any time by you to us as contemplated by this agreement is true and accurate at the time it is provided.
- (b) You agree:
 - (1) to notify us immediately if you become aware at any time that you are unable to repeat any of the warranties in clause 13(a); and
 - (2) to provide updated or corrected information to us if any of the information you provided us at any time as contemplated by this agreement is no longer true and accurate.

14. Fees and other amounts payable

- (a) As applicable, you must pay to us the fees specified in the Pricing Schedule. Those fees may be varied by us giving prior written notice to you and you agree to be bound by any such variation as if it were a formal variation to this agreement. 30 days' notice must be given of any increase in fees. If you do not accept the changes, you may terminate this agreement subject to your continuing obligations under clause 12.
- (b) You must pay or reimburse us for all duties, taxes and other government charges incurred or payable by us in performance of our obligations under this agreement.
- (c) You authorise us to debit the Nominated Account for any amounts payable by you under this agreement.

15. Confidentiality and privacy

- (a) You and we will treat as confidential and will not disclose any information which comes into your or our respective possession as a result of any aspect of this agreement, or use any such information other than for the purposes for which it was given.
- (b) The obligation of confidentiality in clause 15(a) will not apply to any information where:
 - (1) it is in the public domain or becomes generally known to the public, other than through breach of this agreement or another obligation of confidence owed by the disclosing party;
 - (2) it is known to either party prior to the time of disclosure to the other party in connection with this agreement;

- (3) it is required to be disclosed by you or us pursuant to any legislation or legal process; or
 - (4) it was developed independently of its disclosure in connection with this agreement.
- (c) The obligation of confidentiality extends, but is not limited, to:
- (1) the disclosure of fees and charges contained in this agreement;
 - (2) information we obtain about your customers; and
 - (3) any technology or know-how related to the Receivables Services or the performance of this agreement.
- (d) You agree:
- (1) to comply with any Privacy Law:
 - by which you are bound; or
 - by which we are bound and of which we notify you, as if you were bound,
 - (2) not to do anything that will cause us or any person related to the Receivables Services to breach any Privacy Law; and
 - (3) when obtaining personal information from Customers disclose to them that it will be provided to us and that they should read our privacy policy at Commbank.com.au.
 - (4) to inform your directors and officeholders that:
 - we will be collecting information about them in order to assess your application for the Nominated Services from various sources including commercial credit reporting bodies and public registers; and
 - they should read our privacy policy at commbank.com.au, which contains information about our information handling practices, including our complaint processes and overseas disclosures.
- (e) We agree to comply with any Privacy Law.

Privacy Notice

What information we collect

We collect information about you (such as your name, address and contact details), and information about your interactions with us, such as transactions on your account. We may also collect publicly available information about you.

Why we collect your information and what we use it for

We collect your information because we are required to identify you in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006. We also collect it to administer our customer relationships and internal processes including risk management and pricing, to meet our obligations in relation to external payment systems and under our arrangements with government agencies, and to identify and tell you about products and services that may interest you (unless you tell us not to). If you don't want to receive marketing information you can tell us by calling 13 2221. If you give us your electronic and telephone details, you agree we may use this to communicate with you electronically, by phone or SMS, including providing updates, reminders and (unless you tell us not to), marketing information. You must give us accurate and complete information; otherwise you may be breaking the law and we may not be able to provide you with the products and services that you require. If you change your personal details (e.g. address, name or email address) you must tell us straight away.

Who we may exchange your information with

We may exchange your information with other members of the Group who may use your information for any of the purposes we can. We may also exchange your information with others outside the Group, for example, your representatives, our service providers, other financial institutions (for example, in relation to a mistaken payment claim), enforcement and government authorities, relevant public registers, commercial credit reporting bodies, and payment system operators (for example, BPAY, card schemes such as Visa and MasterCard, Australian Payments Network). Sometimes it may be necessary to send your information overseas – for example, where we outsource functions overseas, send information to Group members overseas, where we need to complete a transaction on your behalf of where this is required by laws and regulations in Australia or in another country. See our Group Privacy Policy for more information.

Our Group Privacy Policy

Our Group Privacy Policy is available on our website at commbank.com.au (follow the Privacy Policy link) or upon request from any branch of the Bank and should be read in conjunction with the above. It contains further details about our information collection and handling practices including information about:

- Other ways we may collect, use or exchange your information;
- How you may access and seek correction of the information; and
- How to make a complaint about a breach or your privacy rights, and our complaint handling procedures.

We encourage you to check our website regularly for any updates to the Policy.

BPAY Biller

When using the BPAY Biller service, your personal and transactional information will only be disclosed to:

- Us;
- BPAY Pty Ltd
- Any agent appointed by BPAY Pty Ltd to implement the BPAY Scheme (e.g. Cardlink Services Limited).

You can request access to your personal and transaction information that is held by us, or BPAY Pty Ltd or its agent, Cardlink Services Limited.

How to contact us

For privacy- related enquiries, please contact us by:

- Email at CustomerRelations@cba.com.au
- Telephone 1800 805 605, or
- Writing to the address in our Group Privacy Policy.

Additional Obligations

The Bank may be subject to laws or regulations in Australia or another country that affect your relationship with the Bank (eg laws that address taxation). So that we may comply with our obligations under these laws or regulations, we may:

- Requires you to provide information about you or your product;
- Disclose any information we are required to concerning you (including sending your information overseas);
- Withhold an amount from a payment to you if required to do so, and if we do, we will not reimburse you for the amount withheld; and/or
- Take such other action as is reasonably required, including, for example, terminating your service.

16. Variation and waiver

- (a) If we change the terms and conditions of this agreement, we will tell you about the change as soon as reasonably possible.
- (b) If we believe a change is unfavourable to you, then we will give you prior notice of at least 30 days, subject to the following paragraph:
- (c) We may give you a shorter notice period, or no notice, of an unfavourable change if:
 - (1) we believe urgent action is necessary for us to avoid a material increase in our credit risk or our loss; or
 - (2) there is a change to, or introduction of a government charge that you pay directly, or indirectly, as part of your banking service. In that case, we will tell you about the introduction or change reasonably promptly after the government notifies us (however, we do not have to tell you about if the government publicises the introduction or change).
- (d) We will tell you about these changes either:

- (1) by advertising in the national, or local, media; or
- (2) by giving you written notice in accordance with clause 17.

17. Notices

All communications under this agreement must be in writing. If addressed to you, they may be left at or sent by prepaid ordinary post to your address set out in the product related Establishment Form, or as set out in the CommBiz Service Contact or by email to your email address as set out in the CommBiz Service Contact, or by making the information available on the CommBiz website and sending you an email advising that the information is available on the CommBiz website.

18. Governing law, jurisdiction and service of process

- (a) This agreement and the transactions contemplated by this agreement are governed by the law in force in New South Wales.
- (b) Each party irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the non exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the jurisdiction specified in New South Wales and courts of appeal from them for determining any dispute concerning this agreement or the transactions contemplated by this agreement.
- (c) Without preventing any other mode of service, any document in an action (including, but not limited to, any writ of summons or other originating process or any third or other party notice) may be served on any party by being delivered to or left for that party at their address for services of notices under this agreement.

19. Assignment

- (a) You must not assign or otherwise deal with your rights under this agreement without our prior written consent.
- (b) We may at any time assign or novate our rights and obligations under this agreement and you must execute all documents (if any) required to give effect to this clause. If you receive notice of such assignment or novation, you can exercise against the assignee or novatee the same rights you have against us under this agreement.

20. Severability

If the whole or any part of a provision of this agreement is void, unenforceable or illegal in a jurisdiction it is severed for that jurisdiction. The remainder of this agreement has full force and effect and the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction is not affected. This clause has no effect if the severance alters the basic nature of this agreement or is contrary to public policy.

21. Force majeure

We will not be liable to you for any loss or damage (including whether direct or consequential), nor be in default under the terms of this agreement, for failure to observe or perform any provision of this agreement for any reason or cause which could not with reasonable diligence be controlled or prevented by us including, without limitation, strikes, lockouts, labour disputes, acts of God, acts of nature, acts of governments or their agencies, fire, flood, storm, riots, power shortages or power failure; sudden and unexpected system failure or disruption by war, sabotage or inability to obtain sufficient labour, raw materials, fuel or utilities.

22. Limitation of liability

(a) We are not liable to you, including under any indemnity, for any loss or damage suffered by you as a result of:

(1) a missing or erroneous payment; or

(2) the failure or disruption of any process or computer hardware or software (including any third party software) beyond our reasonable control;

unless the loss or damage is proven to have been caused by our negligence or results from a breach of a Prescribed Term.

- (b) For the purposes of this clause, loss or damage includes, whether direct or indirect, any economic loss, special, punitive or exemplary damages, loss of profit, revenue or opportunity, damage to reputation and any diminution of business value.
- (c) The Prescribed Terms are the guarantees that are implied by consumer protection law.
- (d) When you are not a consumer, our liability is limited to supplying the service again or paying the costs of having the service re-supplied.

1. Participation in the Direct Debit Scheme

In consideration of the payment by you to us of the fees and charges set out in the Establishment Form, we agree to facilitate your participation in the Direct Debit Scheme on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement by acting as the Sponsor Financial Institution on your behalf.

2. Authorisation

We may impose limits on the value of transactions processed by you over periods of time. If proposed Direct Debit transactions would result in the applicable limit being exceeded, we may reject the transactions.

3. Our obligations

We must:

- (a) comply with our obligations under the Direct Debit Scheme and under the BECS Procedures as a Sponsor Financial Institution; and
- (b) perform our obligations under the Direct Debit Scheme and the BECS Procedures in relation to you as a Debit User and this agreement with reasonable skill and care.

4. Your obligations

You must:

- (a) perform your obligations as a Debit User under the Direct Debit Scheme and the BECS Procedures in relation to us as the Sponsor Financial Institution and this agreement with reasonable skill and care;
- (b) only initiate direct debit entries through the Direct Debit Scheme when you hold a valid and binding Direct Debit Request (in a form approved in advance by us) which complies with the minimum requirements of the BECS Procedures (which are set out in Appendix A – Direct Debit Request and Direct Debit Request Service Agreement Minimum Requirements) and have also entered into with the relevant Customer a binding DDR Service Agreement (in a form approved in advance by us) which complies with the minimum requirements of the BECS Procedures which are set out in Appendix A – Direct Debit Request and Direct Debit Request Service Agreement – Minimum Requirements and have given a copy of the DDR Service Agreement to the Customer, or, subject to complying with clause 5, through use of online screens or telephone scripting and process approved in advance by us;
- (c) not initiate direct debit entries through the Direct Debit System although you hold a valid current Direct Debit Request which complies with the BECS Procedures when you are advised by the Customer's Ledger Financial Institution (or by us or by the Customer themselves) that the Customer has directed the Ledger Financial Institution not to permit debit entries under the Direct Debit Request;

- (d) comply with this agreement and the BECS Procedures and promptly comply with any direction given by us to you either under this agreement or under the BECS Procedures;
- (e) not, without our prior consent, transfer to any other person, or allow any other person to use, your BECS User Identification Number;
- (f) give us any information requested by us concerning your drawing arrangements with your Customers and promptly notify us of any problems you are experiencing in respect of those drawing arrangements;
- (g) at any time, when requested by us, give us any information we reasonably require about you, your business or related matters, including information about your financial position;
- (h) ensure that you maintain in a manner approved by us, when in writing the originals, and when received by electronic communication or by telephone reliable records, of each Direct Debit Request, Direct Debit Request Service Agreement and each Switch of Financial Institution and changed Account Details received from a Customer in writing or by electronic communication or by telephone, and a Trace Record of each Payment received from a Customer, for a minimum period of seven years after the last debit drawing is made under each Direct Debit Request;
- (i) when you receive a Switch of Financial Institution and changed Account Details form, within 3 Banking Business Days verify that the contact details and previous bank account details provided match your records, update the customer's details in your systems and promptly notify your customer of this change;
- (j) in respect of any Customer Claim,
 - (1) whenever made, where you relied on a DDR obtained from the Customer online or by telephone, you must promptly refund the debited amounts to the account from which the debit was made in accordance with clause 5(i);
 - (2) made within twelve months of the date of the debit which is the subject of the Customer Claim, promptly respond upon receipt of a Customer Claim (by not later than the third Banking Business Day after receiving a notice of a Customer Claim) to us and inform us that the Customer Claim is either accepted as a Valid Claim or disputed by you, and if disputed then the reasons why it is disputed (including without limitation details of the authority given to you by the Customer including a copy of the original record of the DDR and the DDR Service Agreement); and

- (3) made more than twelve months after the date of the debit which is the subject of the Customer Claim, promptly respond upon receipt of a Customer Claim (by no later than the fifteenth Banking Business Day after receiving a notice of a Customer Claim) to us and inform us that the Customer Claim is either accepted as a Valid Claim or disputed by you, and if disputed then the reasons why it is disputed (including without limitation details of the authority given to you by the Customer including a copy of the original record of the DDR and the DDR Service Agreement);
 - (k) if you fail to respond to us within the terms of and within the period required in sub-clause (h) above then we may refund to the Ledger Financial Institution (for refund by them to the Customer) the amount of the Disputed Claim Item and draw on your account for the equivalent amount;
 - (l) if we advise you (after receipt of your acceptance or disputation of a Valid Claim referred to in sub-clause (h) above) that we regard the Valid Claim as being one on which we admit liability then you authorise us to draw on your account for the equivalent amount for the purpose of remitting this amount to the Ledger Financial Institution for refunding to the Customer;
 - (m) disclose to us if you are processing Direct Debit files on behalf of a third party; and
 - (n) only use telephone or electronic means to obtain DDRs and enter into DDR Service Agreements if we review and approve the format, content, medium and procedures proposed to be used.
- (by a method approved by us) of the information communicated to them;
 - (c) for existing Customers known through an identification key (e.g. a customer reference number), must verify the Customer's identity when obtaining a DDR by checking against your existing records, at a minimum customer name, address, debit account details and customer reference number/ID number and password or pin and must limit the number of permitted unsuccessful attempts at providing the verification details;
 - (d) must obtain our approval of the online screens or telephone scripting and the DDR Service Agreement you propose to use;
 - (e) must ensure that each DDR and DDR Service Agreement you enter into complies with the minimum requirements of the BECS Procedures (which are set out in Appendix B – Electronic Direct Debit Request and Direct Debit Request Service Agreement Minimum Requirements);
 - (f) must be able to obtain clear instructions authorising a valid and binding Direct Debit Request from the Customer and must include reference to the terms and conditions of the DDR Service Agreement between you and your Customer and must validate that the BSB number given by the Customer is genuine and current;
 - (g) must capture information electronically (online) or keep an accurate record of verbal authorisation (telephone) in a format approved by us. Information and/or records of Direct Debit amendments must be stored for a minimum of 7 years after the last debit to the nominated account and must be able to be provided to us on request;
 - (h) must ensure that for Online DDRs, the DDR Service Agreement is made available to the customer before they authorise the Direct Debit Request and that the customer is able to print or download a non-changeable copy of the DDR Service Agreement;
 - (i) after a telephone DDR is complete, must provide the DDR Service Agreement to your Customer within 7 days either as a printed copy or a non-changeable electronic copy;
 - (j) must, if you receive a request electronically or by telephone to vary the account to be debited under an existing DDR, verify the Customer's identity and that the previous bank account details provided match your records, update the customer's details in your systems and promptly notify your customer of this change;
 - (k) must periodically review your security model to ensure that you continue to apply an appropriate level of security and process of obtaining electronically authorised DDRs;
 - (l) acknowledge that not all financial institutions accept DDRs obtained electronically or by telephone and in

5. Obtaining Electronic (Online) or Telephone DDRs
