Trade-offs

This loan might not be right for you if:

- You want the certainty of knowing exactly what you'll be paying each month. Our Digi Home Loan has a variable interest rate. This means the interest rate can move up or down and your repayments will vary based on changes to the variable interest rate.
- You want to increase (top up) your loan during the life of the loan.
- You want to be supported in person or over the phone. Our Digi Home Loan is intended for customers who are comfortable to self-serve online, submit their Digi Home Loan application via online channels (e.g. NetBank and CommBank app), and use the CommBank app to complete the application. Fees may apply per change when switching your loan purpose, repayment type or product type.

Financial

- Our variable interest rates will vary depending on whether:
 - Your loan is an owner occupied or investment home loan; or
 - You make Principal and Interest or Interest Only repayments.

For current interest rates go to commbank.com.au/home-loans/interest-rates

- If you are an eligible CommBank Yello Home Loan customer you may receive a monthly cashback on your Loan Service Fee. For more information on CommBank Yello, go to commbank.com.au/yello

Other considerations

- When buying a property, you generally require a deposit of at least 20% of the purchase price, plus enough to cover the additional upfront costs such as stamp duty and legal fees. These are one off non-refundable, non-transferable costs added to your home loan. The circumstances of your home loan will determine whether a loan will incur Lenders Mortgage Insurance (LMI) or Low Deposit Premium (LDP). LMI or LDP are not available on a Digi Home Loan.

Repayment Options

There is more than one way to repay your home loan.

Repayment type

Principal and Interest (P&I)

Pay your home loan balance and the interest

Each time you pay the minimum required repayment, you're contributing to paying off the original loan balance (principal) and interest accrued.

Interest Only (IO)

Pay just the interest on your home loan for a limited time

Each time you make a payment you will only pay off accrued interest – so none of the principal loan balance is paid off. Once the Interest Only period ends, your repayments will automatically switch to Principal and Interest for the remainder of the loan term which will increase your minimum required repayment.

The maximum total Interest Only period over the life of the loan is:

- 5 years for an owner occupied home loan; and
- 15 years for an investment home loan (maximum of 5 years at any one time).

Interest Only payments are not available within the last 5 years of your contracted loan term.

Key considerations

- You'll have a lower interest rate when compared to the interest rate charged on Interest Only payments.
- You'll pay less interest over the life of the loan.
- You'll have a higher interest rate when compared to the interest rate charged on Principal and Interest repayments.
- You'll pay more interest over the life of the loan – this is because you aren't reducing the loan balance during an Interest Only period.
- Your minimum required repayment will be lower for the Interest Only period, however it will increase at the end of the Interest Only period. Your minimum required repayment will be higher than if you'd chosen Principal and Interest repayments for the life of your loan, as the amount you have borrowed will need to be paid back over a shorter timeframe.
- Applying for Interest Only payments is subject to approval.

Meet Chris

Chris has taken out a Digi Home Loan of $500,000 for 30 years and is considering his repayment options.

How does it work?

Here's an example² to help explain the difference between our repayment options.

Scenario 1 – Principal and Interest repayment

Chris chooses to make monthly Principal and Interest repayments over the life of his home loan.

His interest rate is 6.20% p.a. and over the life of his loan his minimum required repayments remain constant at $3,063 per month.

* After 5 years of Principal and Interest repayments, Jason has a remaining home loan balance of $452,825.

Chris pays in total $1,102,445 over the life of his loan.

Scenario 2 – Interest Only payment

Chris chooses to make Interest Only payments for the first 5 years of his home loan.

His interest rate is 6.70% p.a. and his minimum required payments are $2,792 per month for the first 5 years Interest Only period.

After his Interest Only period ends, his repayment type switches to Principal and Interest repayments. His interest rate reduces to 6.20% p.a. however his minimum required repayments increase to $3,283 per month. This is because Chris is now paying his principal loan balance over 25 years and not 30.

* After 5 years of Interest Only payments, Jason has a remaining home loan balance of $500,000. His home loan balance has not reduced, and he now needs to repay it over 25 years.

Chris pays in total $1,152,394 over the life of his loan, an additional $48,949 in interest.

² The example is for illustrative purposes only. It assumes interest rates don't change over the life of the loan and are calculated on the rate that applies for initial period of the loan. Interest rates may change at any time. The calculations do not take into account fees, charges or other amounts that may be charged to your loan (such as establishment, monthly services fees or stamp duty). No additional repayments and redraws are made. Standard fees and charges are payable.
