

BANKING FOR YOUR CRICKET CLUB.

Day-to-day banking.

Our day-to-day banking solutions provide easy access to your club's funds with reduced fees.

Society Cheque Account

The Society Cheque Account was the first ever account introduced specifically for Australian not-for-profits, back in 1912. Now it leads the market, offering no monthly service fee on a transaction account that pays interest on credit balances.^{*} Manage your cricket club's everyday banking transactions online, in branch or on the phone.

Features	Benefits
Interest is calculated on credit balances and paid on the first day of each month to your account.	Your cricket club's cash works harder even when it's in your day-to-day account.
Subject to approval, you can set up an overdraft limit on the account, allowing you to access to extra funds up to the approved limit.	Provides a buffer that you can access 24 hours a day, seven days a week for unexpected expenses, such as new match balls when too many boundaries have been hit!
Multiple Debit Mastercards® can be attached to the Society Cheque Account.	Assign multiple Debit Mastercards® to your cricket club committee, making it easy to track and record expenses.
A second Society Cheque Account can be established to isolate petty cash from your main cricket club account (with the same fee reductions as your main Society Cheque Account).	By isolating petty cash in a separate account, you can limit access to your all-important main working cash account, providing greater internal controls for the club.

^{*} Fees may apply for non-Commonwealth Bank ATMs here and all ATMs overseas, EFTPOS transactions overseas, transfer group payments to third parties, international money transfers, CommBiz and Netbank transaction fees and separate services such as bank cheques, periodic payments and transfers/deposits to other banks. Wholesale relationship managed customers may be notified at any time that their account is subject to transaction fees on electronic transactions and Commonwealth ATM cash withdrawals. MasterCard is a registered trademark of MasterCard International Incorporated.
