

TERMS OF BUSINESS

PROFESSIONAL CLIENT AND ELIGIBLE COUNTERPARTIES

1 GENERAL

- 1.1 Scope: Subject to clause 1.2 below, these Terms of Business and the attached Annexes are legally binding and govern your relationship with Commonwealth Bank of Australia London branch (the “Bank”) and with CBA Europe Limited (“CBAE”) including any services and activities provided to you by the Bank and/or CBAE. This includes deals arranged with you by CBAE on behalf of the Bank. Any services or activities provided to you by any other CBA group entities or branches will be provided in accordance with relevant local standards and any such services or activities will not be governed by these Terms of Business but by the terms of any Product Agreement you have with those CBA group entities or branches.
- 1.2 Additional terms: These Terms of Business and the attached Annexes are supplemental to any Product Agreements we have entered into or may enter into with you from time to time or any relevant separate netting, margining or collateral agreement. The terms and conditions of such Product Agreements and other supplemental agreements take precedence over these Terms of Business to the extent that they conflict, and in respect of the Transactions to which that agreement relates. These Terms of Business shall, however, continue to govern all other aspects of the relationship between you and us.
- 1.3 Definitions: Words and expressions used in these Terms of Business shall have the meanings given to them in Annex 1 (Definitions).
- 1.4 Information about us: Commonwealth Bank of Australia (ABN 48 123 123 124) is a public company registered in Australia under the Corporations Act. It is authorised and regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority and subject to regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority. Details about the extent of our regulation by the Prudential Regulation Authority are available from us on request.

CBAE is a separately incorporated UK subsidiary of the Bank, registered in the UK and authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. Our principal place of business for both the Bank and CBAE in the UK is:

1 New Ludgate
60 Ludgate Hill
London EC4M 7AW

- 1.5 Client Categorisation: Based on the information provided to us, for the purposes of the FCA Rules, your classification in all our dealings with you is to be stipulated in the cover letter that accompanies these Terms of Business.

You agree that you are responsible for keeping us promptly informed of any change/s that could affect your classification.

- 1.6 Right to request different categorisation: If we have classified you as an Eligible Counterparty, certain statutory and regulatory protections available to Professional Clients will not apply to you, as explained in Annex 2, and you have the right to request a different client categorisation offering a greater level of regulatory protection. Such request should be made in writing and addressed to the Compliance department and sent to Londoncompliance@cba.com.au. We will consider your request but are under no obligation to agree.

If we have classified you as a Professional Client you have no right to request a higher level of regulatory protection as the Bank and CBAE's authorisation in the UK does not extend to Retail Customers.

If we have classified you as a Professional Client you have the right to request categorisation as an Eligible Counterparty. If you request this and we agree to such categorisation, certain statutory and regulatory protections available to Professional Clients will not apply to you, as explained in Annex 2.

If we reclassify you as an Eligible Counterparty we will provide you with a new notice confirming the change.

- 1.7 Capacity: We may act as principal or agent in Transactions. Where CBAE arranges transactions with you on behalf of the Bank, the principal trade will be with the Bank as your legal counterparty. Your exposure is with the Bank with no changes necessary to any existing standard settlement processes, existing credit lines or other agreements you may have with the Bank which remain in place and are not affected by any relationship you may have with CBAE.

You represent and warrant that, unless we are informed otherwise, you are acting as principal and will accordingly be liable to the Bank for all obligations hereunder. Unless otherwise stated by you, we will assume that you are acting as principal and not as an agent (or trustee) on behalf of someone else. If you are acting as agent, clause 16 (Agency) will apply.

- 1.8 Commencement of the Terms of Business: Where you interact with us, on or after the date specified in the cover letter and after receipt of these Terms of Business, you shall be deemed to have accepted them. These Terms of Business supersede any previous written or oral agreement between the parties in relation to the matters dealt with therein and, except as expressly stated, contain the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter of these Terms of Business, at the date hereof, to the exclusion of any terms implied by law which may be excluded by contract.

Amendment of these terms by us: We will review these Terms of Business annually and at other times as required by the FCA Rules or changes to our operation. We will notify you of material changes either in hard copy form, in soft copy form via email or we may email you a link to the revised terms on our website. It is your responsibility to check for any other non-material changes as published from time to time on our website at:

- 1.9 Effective date of amendments: Such amendments will become effective after the expiry of ten business days from the date on which the new Terms of Business are published on our website, unless a shorter notice period is required or is appropriate in the circumstances, including if the changes are to your benefit or are required by Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations in which case they may be applied with immediate effect. You will be deemed to have accepted the amendments to these Terms of Business from the effective date by clicking on the link to open the terms, or by continuing to place orders with and accept services from us from that date, whichever is sooner.
- 1.10 Amendment of these Terms by you: Any alteration which you may wish to make to these Terms of Business must be agreed in advance by the Bank in writing.
- 1.11 Communication with us: You may communicate with us in writing including by email or other electronic means or verbally (including by telephone). The language of communication shall be English and documents and information provided by us will be in this language. Our website contains further information about us and our services. In the event of any conflict between these Terms of Business and our website, these Terms of Business will prevail.
- 1.12 Communications in relation to these Terms of Business and the services provided under them may be in writing (including fax), by email or other electronic means, or orally (including by telephone). You specifically consent to us providing you with information (whether or not personally addressed to you) in an electronic format, either by means of our website <https://www.commbank.com.au/about-us/our-company/international-branches/europe.html>, or by email using the address notified by you to us from time to time. Except as otherwise expressly provided, the language of communication shall be English, and you will receive documents and other information from us in English.
- 1.13 Notices: Any notices, instructions, demands, confirmations, contract notes or requests (“Notices”) may be given verbally unless required in writing by these Terms of Business. References to writing include electronic mail.
- 1.14 Method of transmission: Any Notice in writing may be given as follows:
 - 1.14.1 By posting (first class or, where appropriate, by airmail) and will be deemed delivered in seven (7) business days after posting. Proof that the Notice was correctly addressed and was posted first class or, where appropriate, airmail, will be sufficient proof of delivery.
 - 1.14.2 By delivering it physically it will be deemed delivered upon physical delivery. Proof that it was delivered physically to the correct address will be sufficient proof of delivery.

1.14.3 By sending it by facsimile transmission or any other electronic transmission and will be deemed delivered upon transmission. Proof that it was transmitted to the correct number or destination will be sufficient proof of delivery.

1.15 Transmission by electronic mail: You also agree and acknowledge, unless otherwise notified to us, that we may issue Notices, reports or other documents (“Information”) by electronic mail to such electronic mail address as you specify to us from time to time (the “email Address”), provided that you and we agree that if such Information is issued by electronic mail:

1.15.1.1 Such Information shall be deemed delivered to you upon us sending such Information, whether or not the Information in fact arrives at the email Address;

1.15.1.2 we shall not be liable to you for any delay or failure of delivery (for whatever reason) of any such Information sent by electronic mail; and

1.15.1.3 if, notwithstanding that we have addressed such Information to the email Address, such Information arrives with or is seen by any person other than you, you agree that we shall be deemed not to have breached any duty of confidentiality to you, and we shall not be liable for any loss, claim, cost, expense or other liability suffered by you as a result thereof, save as may be inconsistent with the FCA Rules.

1.15.2 Subject to Applicable Regulations, any communication between us using electronic signatures shall be binding as if it were in writing. Orders or instructions given to you via email or other electronic means will constitute evidence of the orders or instructions given.

1.15.3 Any Notice shall be given to you at your address shown in our records.

1.15.4 All Notices shall be given to us at our principal place of business in the UK as shown above or at such other place as we may notify in writing to you.

1.16 Conclusion of contract notes and other statements: Any contract note, confirmation, account or other statement which the Bank gives in writing will, in the absence of manifest error, be deemed correct, conclusive and binding on you if not objected to in writing within five (5) London business days of dispatch by the Bank.

2.2 Applicable regulations and market requirements: All Transactions will be subject to:

- 2.2.1 the rules and customs of the exchange, market and/or any clearing house, CCP or clearing system from time to time in force ("Applicable Rules") through which the Transaction is executed or settled; and
- 2.2.2 the Applicable Regulations.

If there is any conflict between the provisions of these Terms of Business or any Product Agreement and the Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations, the Applicable Rules and/or Applicable Regulations will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency. We may take or omit to take any action we think appropriate in order to ensure compliance with any such Applicable Regulations or Applicable Rules and neither us, our Affiliates or our/their respective personnel shall be liable as a result of any action or omission taken in good faith by them and acting on your behalf to comply with such Applicable Regulations or Applicable Rules.

- 2.3 Market requirements: We may take such action in respect of your instructions as may be prudent, necessary or required in order to comply with any rules of the relevant market. We are not liable to you for any acts or omissions of any Market, exchange or clearing house.
- 2.4 Market action: If a Market (or intermediate broker or agent, acting at the direction of or as a result of action taken by a Market) or Regulatory Body takes any action which affects a Transaction then we may take any such action which we, in our reasonable discretion, consider desirable to correspond with such action or to mitigate any loss incurred as a result of such action. Any such action shall be binding on you. If a Market or Regulatory Body makes an enquiry in respect of any of your transactions, you agree to cooperate with us and to promptly supply information requested in connection with the enquiry.
- 2.5 Your instructions: We are entitled to assume that any person giving us instructions on your behalf has full and unrestricted power to do so. We will not be liable for any actions taken or omitted to be taken in good faith. You may give instructions to us in writing or, if we expressly so agree, verbally. We will acknowledge verbal instructions verbally and will acknowledge written instructions by acting on them. We will not be under any obligation to confirm the accuracy of instructions before acting on them, but may do so.
- 2.6 Our reliance on your instructions: You authorise us to rely on, and treat as fully authorised and binding on you, any order, instruction or communication (by whatever means transmitted and whether or not in writing), which purports to be given by you or on your behalf and is accepted by us in good faith without further inquiry on our part as to the genuineness, authority or identity of the person giving or purporting to give the same and regardless of the circumstances prevailing at the time. You will be responsible for and bound by all contracts, obligations, costs and expenses properly entered into or assumed by the Bank or CBAE on your behalf, in consequence of or in connection with such orders, instructions or communications. We will not be liable for any actions taken or omitted to be taken in good faith pursuant to your orders, instructions or communications.

3 PERMITTED ACTIVITIES

- 3.1 Borrowing: We are permitted to borrow money for you against the security of your assets or otherwise, to pay for purchases of other investments (including taking up rights), and execute or sign on your behalf any documents in relation to such borrowing.
- 3.2 Stock lending: We may undertake stock lending activity for you in relation to any assets held by us for you and any further assets as from time to time agreed between us. Stock lending will be carried out on the following basis:
- 3.2.1 We may undertake such lending with or without taking collateral, and where we do take collateral, such collateral may be in cash, investments of any type or physical commodities or any instrument representing any of the same as we may see fit, and shall be of a value as determined by us in our absolute discretion at least equal to the value (as so determined) of the assets lent. You shall be remunerated for such stock lending by payment of such commission as shall from time to time be agreed with us, and such commission shall be added to your account with us.

3.2.2 As a result of lending securities, you will cease to be the owner of them, although you will have the right to re-acquire at a future date equivalent securities (or in certain circumstances the cash value or the proceeds of redemption). However, except to the extent that you have received collateral, your right to the return of securities is subject to the risk of insolvency or other non-performance by the borrower. Since you are not the owner during the period securities are lent, you will not have voting rights nor will you directly receive dividends or other corporate actions, although you will normally be entitled to a payment from the borrower equivalent to the dividend you would otherwise have received, and the borrower will be required to account to you for the benefit of corporate actions. Full details of the foregoing will be contained in any stock lending agreement you enter into with us, and the above description is subject to the terms of any such agreement.

3.3 Underwriting: We may enter into Transactions for you which commit you to underwriting, sub-underwriting or similar obligations in connection with a new issue, rights issue, takeover or similar Transaction.

3.4 Lending or pledging collateral: We may, if it is market practice to do so, pledge or charge to a third party any part of your account used as collateral for the third party to use as collateral for its own obligations. Such collateral registered with the third party will not be in your name. Collateral may be returned which is equivalent but not identical to the collateral taken from your account.

3.5 Deposit services: We may also provide certain wholesale deposit and other cash management/treasury services to you on the basis set out in the attached Money Market Deposit Agreement (Annex 3). Where CBA provides Structured Deposit Services, such services shall be subject to these Terms of Business and not the Money Market Deposit Agreement (Annex 3).

3.6 Structured Deposits Services: We may provide you with certain Structured Deposit Services and these terms of Business, to the extent relevant, apply in their entirety to such Services with the exception of the following sections of these Terms of Business:

3.6.1 Section 5 (Order Execution);

3.6.2 Section 7.12 (Acting as a general Clearing member); and

3.6.3 Section 11 (Electronic Trading Terms).

4 ADVISED/NON-ADVISED SERVICES:

4.1 No advice: You acknowledge that in providing services under these Terms of Business we will not provide Investment Advice to you in respect of, nor on the merits of, any Transaction, Investments or other assets. We owe you no warranty as to the suitability of Investments and other assets traded under these Terms of Business. We will not owe you any fiduciary or similar obligations in connection with any contract or in our relations with you. Accordingly, you should make your own assessment of any Transaction that you are considering and should not rely on any information, proposal or other communication from us as being a recommendation or Investment Advice in relation to that Transaction. If, exceptionally, Investment Advice is to be provided, it will be provided under a separate signed written mandate.

- 4.2 Level of experience: We are entitled to assume that as a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty you have the necessary level of experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks involved in the proposed Transactions in Investments. We may also assume that you are able to financially bear any related investment risks consistent with your investment objectives in relation to the proposed Transactions in Investments or related services.
- 4.3 For the purposes of any applicable appropriateness assessment, we are entitled to rely on the information that you or your agent have supplied to us and you represent and warrant that such information is true, accurate and complete.
- 4.4 Where FCA Rules permit, we will not consider the appropriateness of a product or service in relation to non-complex investments (as listed below at clause 4.5). Where this is the case, you will not benefit from the corresponding protection if we did consider appropriateness.
- 4.5 Very broadly, non-complex investments are described under FCA Rules and include (subject to certain exceptions and not limited to): shares admitted to trading on certain venues; bonds or other forms of securitised debt admitted to trading on certain venues; money market instruments; shares or units in UCITS; Structured Deposits Regulated Activities.
- 4.6 Your investment objectives for advised service only: Where you have signed the separate advisory mandate and we provide you with Investment Advice, you undertake to provide us on request with all information regarding your investment objectives. We will seek to ensure that our recommendations are consistent with our understanding of your investment objectives, unless otherwise agreed between you and us in relation to a particular Transaction. Where we advise you, we will rely on the information in our possession at that time and you should update us whenever your circumstances or objectives materially change.
- 4.7 Matters not considered when providing services and activities: We do not, and are under no obligation to, consider your circumstances in terms of legal, regulatory, taxation and/or accounting matters. As such, you should consider any interaction subject to these Terms of Business in regard to your own objectives and circumstances, and seek independent professional advice, in regard to such matters.

5 ORDER EXECUTION

- 5.1 Appointment of brokers: We may, at our entire discretion, arrange for any Transaction to be effected with or through the agency of an intermediate broker, who may be an Associate of ours and may not be in the United Kingdom. Neither we nor our respective directors, officers, employees or agents will be liable to you for any act or omission of an intermediate broker or agent. No responsibility will be accepted for intermediate brokers or agents selected by you.
- 5.2 No obligation to deal: We are not obliged to execute or otherwise enter into any particular Transaction, or to accept any order to act in accordance with instructions, nor need we give any reasons for declining to do so. If we decide not to take or to decline an order we will try to notify you promptly but shall have no obligation to do so.

If we decline an order, we will try to notify you promptly but will not be liable for any expense, loss or damage incurred by you if we fail to notify you, unless this is as a result of our bad faith, wilful default or negligence.

- 5.3 Best execution: We do not provide Best Execution to Eligible Counterparties, however, we do provide Best Execution to Professional Clients as defined in our Order Execution Policy. A client disclosure summary of our Order Execution Policy, which we may update from time to time, is published on our website and this sets out the circumstances in which we will not be executing orders on your behalf:

- 5.4 When we owe a duty of Best Execution: If you are a Professional Client we will owe you a duty of Best Execution in accordance with our Order Execution Policy to the extent that we are executing orders on your behalf. Where we provide you, either on request or on a continuing basis, with a quote for the purchase or sale of a financial instrument or deal with you as a counterparty as principal for our own account, as contemplated under our Order Execution Policy, we may not owe a duty of Best Execution and shall negotiate the terms of the Transaction accordingly.

- 5.5 Following your instructions: If you are a Professional Client we will not owe you a duty of Best Execution to the extent that we follow your specific instructions (as to the order or a specific aspect of that order) when executing an order or placing an order or transmitting an order to another entity for execution. If your instructions relate to a specific aspect of an order, then we will continue to be subject to Best Execution in relation to those aspects of the order not covered by the instructions.

- 5.6 Consent to our Order Execution Policy: You confirm that you agree to our Order Execution Policy. We shall treat you as having consented to our Order Execution Policy where we subsequently receive an order from you or execute Transactions for you in the applicable Investments.

- 5.7 Changes to our Order Execution Policy: We will review our Order Execution Policy annually and at other times where required by the FCA Rules and will notify you of any material changes to our Order Execution Policy. It is your responsibility to check for any other non-material changes as published from time to time on our website at:

<https://www.commbank.com.au/about-us/our-company/international-branches/europe.html>.

We will consider the continued placing of orders for Transactions by you as continued consent to our Order Execution Policy as in effect from time to time.

- 5.8 Trading obligation for OTC derivatives: In certain circumstances (e.g. where the Transaction relates to a derivative that is subject to the trading obligation) we may conclude such Transactions only on a regulated market, multilateral trading facility, organised trading facility or a third country trading venue assessed as equivalent.
- 5.9 Consent to Transactions outside a regulated market: You agree and acknowledge that we may execute an order on your behalf outside a Regulated Market, Multilateral Trading Facility or Organised Trading Facility (as such terms are defined in the FCA Rules).
- 5.10 Non-Investment assets: You should note that Best Execution and other duties we may have under the FCA Rules will not apply to our dealings with you in any assets that are not Investments, such as any spot physical commodities trades, which we enter into with you from time to time.
- 5.11 Control of orders prior to execution: We have the right (but no obligation) to set limits and/or parameters to control your ability to place orders at our absolute discretion. Such limits and/or parameters may be amended, increased, decreased, removed or added to by us at our absolute discretion.
- 5.12 Position limits: We may require you to limit the number of open positions which you may have with us at any time and we may in our sole discretion close out any one or more Transactions in order to ensure that any such position limits are maintained.
- 5.13 Trading limits, position limits and position management controls: Position limits and position management controls may be imposed by Applicable Rules, Applicable Regulations or by a Market. In relation to the Services that we provide to you under these Terms of Business, we may also set out and communicate to you appropriate trading and position limits to mitigate and manage our own counterparty, liquidity, operational and other risks. We will monitor your positions against such limits as close to real-time as possible. In order to ensure compliance with Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations with regard to position limits and position management controls or trading or position limits set by us or a Market, we may at our sole discretion require you to limit, terminate or reduce the positions which you may have at any time and we may at our sole discretion decline to execute an order, suspend your access to any Market or market infrastructure, take action to close out any one or more Transactions, or take any other appropriate action.

You agree and acknowledge that in the case of a limit order in shares admitted to trading on a Market or traded on a Market, Multilateral Trading Facility or Organised Trading Facility which is not immediately executed, we are not bound to facilitate the earliest possible execution of that order by making it public in an easily accessible manner.

- 5.14 Order handling: If you are a Professional Client we will use our reasonable endeavours to execute your order promptly in accordance with our procedures and arrangements which provide for the prompt, fair and expeditious execution of client orders, relative to other orders or our trading interests, where relevant. In accepting your orders we do not represent or warrant that it will be possible to execute such an order or that execution will be possible according to your instructions.

- 5.15 Stabilisation: We may effect Transactions that are subject to stabilisation, a price supporting process that may take place for new issues. The effect of stabilisation can be to make the market price of the new issue temporarily higher than it would otherwise be. We shall owe you no duties in respect of legitimate stabilisation activities which we undertake.
- 5.16 Aggregation of orders: We may aggregate your order with our own orders and the orders of other clients, but will only do so in exceptional circumstances where it is unlikely that the aggregation of orders will work overall to the disadvantage of any client whose order is to be aggregated. If we aggregate orders in this way then it may, on some occasions, work to your disadvantage in relation to a particular order. If an aggregated order is partially executed we will allocate the related trades in accordance with our Order Execution Policy. For further information, please see the Commonwealth Bank of Australia in Europe website at:
- <https://www.commbank.com.au/about-us/our-company/international-branches/europe.html>
- 5.17 Programme Trades: Where we accept an order to effect a Programme Trade, you agree that we are not obliged to notify you whether we act as principal or agent. If you would like us to execute a Programme Trade on a Market as your agent, you must give us instructions to that effect. In such case we will take all sufficient steps to obtain Best Execution in accordance with our Order Execution Policy, subject always to any specific instructions from you. If you do not instruct us to execute a programme trade as agent, we will execute it as principal, subject to the Applicable Regulations.
- 5.18 Cross trades: We may arrange for a Transaction to be executed, either in whole or in part, by selling an Investment or other asset to you from another client, or a client of an Associate of ours or vice versa. We shall not give you prior notice if we arrange for a Transaction to be executed in this manner.
- 5.19 Self dealing and dual agency: We or any of our Associates may enter into a Transaction or deal with or for you where the other party to the Transaction is or may be us or an Associate as principal or as agent. We may also, at our discretion, arrange for any Transaction to be effected with or through the agency of an intermediate broker who may be an Associate or us and may not be in the UK. Neither we nor our respective agents or Associates will be liable to you for any act or omission of an intermediate broker or agent. No responsibility will be accepted for intermediate brokers or agents selected by you.
- 5.20 Short selling: Unless otherwise advised by you, the Bank and CBAE accepts your sale orders on the basis that you own the Investments or other asset sold. You are required to advise us if any sale order given to us is a Short Sale and we shall have the right in our absolute discretion to refuse to accept any such Short Sale order. No Short Sales shall be effected for settlement by us unless you have in advance of the order agreed with us that the Investments are or will be at the relevant time available for delivery or in respect of listed Investments will be available to be lent by us to you, pursuant to a Product Agreement for stock lending. Any orders for Short Sales will be subject to the restrictions under Applicable Regulations on such Short Sales, including without limitation the EU Short Selling Regulation.

- 5.21 Post-Trade Transparency: Under Applicable Regulations we may be obliged to make information about certain Transactions public. You agree and acknowledge that any and all proprietary rights in such transaction information are owned by us and you waive any duty of confidentiality attaching such information which we reasonably disclose. In addition, where we execute a Transaction with you on an over-the-counter basis and the Transaction is subject to publication in accordance with Article 21 MiFIR, you agree that the party acting as seller shall make public the information regarding the Transaction in accordance with Applicable Regulations, unless only one of you or us is a systematic internaliser in the given financial instrument and is also acting as the buyer, in which case the buyer will make the relevant Transaction, information public in accordance with Applicable Regulations.
- 5.22 Systematic internalisation: If we act in the capacity of a systematic internaliser and we make public firm quotes in certain Transactions on a Market, in accordance with Applicable Regulations, you agree that we may limit: (i) the number of Transactions that we undertake to enter into with you at the published quote; and (ii) the total number of Transactions that we undertake to enter into with other clients at the published quote. Where we grant access to quotes provided by us in our capacity as a systematic internaliser, and the quoted size is at or below the size specific to the financial instrument, we may enter into a Transaction with any other client to whom the quote is made available, in accordance with Applicable Regulations.
- 5.23 Changes in the market: We will not be responsible for any delay or change in market conditions between the time that we receive your instructions and the time of execution of any resulting Transaction unless due to our negligence, fraud or wilful default.

6 CLIENT REPORTING

- 6.1 Reporting: We will report to you on Transactions as required under the FCA Rules from time to time.
- 6.2 Confirmations and contract notes: Unless (i) we agree to categorise you as an eligible counterparty and subsequently enter into a separate agreement with you regarding the content and timing of confirmations, or (ii) a confirmation has been provided to you by another person, we shall send you confirmations within agreed market timing convention or as required by Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations. The confirmations will be provided by electronic means to the email address on record for you where appropriate or in writing for certain transactions. It is your responsibility to notify us of any change to your email address, the non-receipt of a confirmation or whether any confirmation is incorrect before settlement. Confirmations shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on you, unless we receive from you objection in writing within one business day of our making the confirmation available to you. Neither CBAE nor the Bank shall be required to provide a confirmation of a Transaction if it would contain the same information as a confirmation that is to be promptly dispatched to you by another person. For the avoidance of doubt, these confirmations would not involve reporting on cleared positions.

7 PAYMENT CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT

- 7.1 Payments and Deliveries: All payments and (if the Bank does not already hold them) all certificates and other documents required to settle your Transactions must be delivered in time to enable the Bank to complete settlement promptly.
- 7.2 Receipt of funds or assets: To the extent that the documents and cleared funds are not held by the Bank, we are not obliged to settle any Transaction, whether the Bank is acting as principal or agent, or settle any account to you until the Bank or our settlement agent or, as the case may be, global custodian, has received all necessary documents or cleared funds. The Bank's obligations to deliver to you, or to your account, or to account to you for the proceeds of disposal of investments are conditional on prior receipt by the Bank of appropriate documentation and cleared funds.
- 7.3 Provisional settlement: We may, in our discretion, debit or credit cash or Investments to your accounts on the contractual settlement date, notwithstanding that under Applicable Regulations the relevant Transaction may not have settled in your favour or our favour with finality. In such event we shall be entitled in our absolute discretion to reverse accounting entries and recover cash or Investments from you if actual settlement is delayed or does not take place after a reasonable period of time. In addition you agree to repay or deliver to us any cash or Investments that are paid or delivered to you in error and you specifically authorise us to make any account entries to reflect the same.
- 7.4 Indemnity for failures to deliver: If securities or funds are not delivered to us as and when due under any Transaction, you will fully indemnify us in accordance with clause 21 (Liability and Indemnity) below.
- 7.5 Method of settlement: Unless the Bank expressly agrees to the contrary in any particular case or market practice otherwise requires, all amounts of every kind which are payable by you to the Bank and vice versa will be payable on a delivery versus payment basis. We may make net payments in accordance with the terms and conditions in relation to netting in the relevant Product Agreement between us.
- 7.6 Payment in immediately available funds: Unless otherwise agreed, all money paid hereunder will be in immediately available, freely convertible funds of the relevant currency.
- 7.7 Withholding and gross up: Unless otherwise agreed, all money payable by you to the Bank in respect of any Transaction will be paid free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by any authority having power to tax, unless the withholding or deduction of such taxes or duties is required by law. In that event, unless otherwise agreed by us, you will pay such additional amounts as will result in the net amounts receivable by the Bank (after taking account of such withholding or deduction) being equal to such amounts as would have been received by the Bank had no such taxes been required to be withheld or deducted.
- 7.8 Delivery: Whenever a person is required to deliver or re-deliver an asset, that person will execute and deliver all necessary documents (including appropriate instruments of transfer duly stamped) and give all necessary instructions to procure that all rights, title and interest in the subject matter of the delivery will pass from that person to the transferee free from all liens, charges and encumbrances. Delivery and transfer of title will take place in accordance with the rules and procedures applicable to the relevant asset as in force from time to time.

- 7.9 The Bank's responsibilities when acting as agent: Where the Bank has acted as your agent, it is the principal to the Transaction and not the Bank who is responsible for settling the trade with you and delivery or payment (as the case may be) will be at your entire risk. The Bank's obligation is only to pass on to you, or as you direct to credit to your account, such deliverable documents or sale proceeds (as the case may be) as the Bank receives.
- 7.10 Netting: Arrangements for netting will be as set out in the relevant Product Agreement, subject to any separate netting agreement that we may negotiate with you from time to time.
- 7.11 Offset: Any amounts owed to the Bank in connection with the Terms of Business may be set off against amounts the Bank owes to you, without prior reference to you. The Bank may deduct our fees and any other amounts due from any funds of yours held by the Bank.
- 7.12 Acting as a general clearing member: Where the Services include the clearing of a Transaction, we shall conduct a periodic assessment of your performance against the due diligence criteria listed below.  - 7.12.6 any collateral provided to us by you;
 - 7.12.7 your operational resources, including technological interfaces and connectivity;
 - 7.12.8 any involvement of you in a breach of the rules ensuring the integrity of the financial markets, including involvement in market abuse, financial crime or money laundering activities; or
- as such list may be modified by us by notice from time to time.

8 FEES AND CHARGES

8.1 Fees and charges: You will pay such fees and expenses as are agreed by us and yourself from time to time. We may share dealing charges with our Associates or other third parties, or receive remuneration from them in respect of Transactions carried out on your behalf. You may write to us to request details of any such arrangements or the amount of such remuneration in any particular case. Without prejudice to these obligations, and except otherwise separately agreed with you, you agree to the fullest extent permissible under Applicable Regulations to a limited application of the detailed information requirements on costs and associated charges. Information with regard to all costs and related charges in accordance with Applicable Law is available from the Commonwealth Bank of Australia in Europe website at:

<https://www.commbank.com.au/about-us/our-company/international-branches/europe.html>

8.2 Additional costs: You should be aware of the possibility that other taxes or costs may exist that are not paid through or imposed by us.

9 CLIENT MONEY, CUSTODY AND COLLATERAL

9.1 DVP Exemption: We will normally settle Transactions on a delivery versus payment basis. Money we receive from you will not be Client Money where we receive it in respect of a delivery versus payment transaction through a commercial settlement system in accordance with the DVP Exemption in the Client Money Rules.

9.2 Money held as banker not as Trustee: In the event that we do hold money on your behalf, then note that the Bank (excluding CBAE) is an approved Bank for the purposes of the Client Money Rules and where we receive money from you we will promptly place this into an account with ourselves and will hold that money as banker and not as trustee. This means that your money will not be Client Money and will not be held in accordance with the Client Money Rules. In particular we shall not segregate your money from ours and we shall not be liable to account to you for any profits made by us as a result of such funds. In addition if the Bank fails, the Client Money Distribution and Transfer Rules will not apply to these sums and so the client will not be entitled to share in any distribution under the Client Money Distribution and Transfer Rules.

9.3 CBAE unable to accept Client Money: For the avoidance of doubt CBAE is not a Bank and is not permitted to accept deposits or hold or control Client Money and will not accept funds from you which are Client Money in connection with the investment business provided under these Terms of Business.

9.4 Consent to our reliance on the DVP Exemption: You agree that we may rely on the DVP Exemption whenever we are entitled to do so in accordance with the FCA Rules. In situations where we are not able to rely on the DVP Exemption, (for example if we are not a direct member or participant of the relevant settlement system or if we cease to be able to rely on it because we have been unable to fulfil our obligation to deliver Investments by close of the third business day following the date of your fulfilling the corresponding payment obligation to fund the purchase), we will continue to hold your money in an account on deposit with the Bank as banker and not as trustee. We will ensure that the money held on deposit with the Bank in this way is allocated to you promptly in our records in any event no later than ten (10) business days after we first received the money from you.

9.5 Custody: We will not ordinarily (and shall not be obliged to) hold Investments or other assets on your behalf by way of safe custody. Where we do agree to provide such services on your request, this will be on the basis of terms and conditions set out in a separate safe custody agreement which you must sign and return.

9.6 Title transfer collateral arrangements: The terms and conditions on which we will hold title transfer collateral in respect to any Transaction shall be as set out in any relevant Product Agreement which shall prevail over these Terms of Business and its annexes, to the extent of any inconsistency, subject to any other terms and conditions concerning collateral which we may negotiate with you from time to time.

Where we provide you with information we are under no obligation to do so and it is not provided with consideration of your personal circumstance, unless we expressly state otherwise for that specific information. 10.4.2 we give no representation, warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of any such information or as to the legal, regulatory, tax or other consequences of any Transaction;

- 10.4.3 if it contains a restriction on the person or category of persons for whom the information is intended or to whom it is distributed, you will not pass it on contrary to that restriction; and
- 10.4.4 we may act upon it ourselves or make use of the information on which it is based. We make no representations as to the time of receipt by you and cannot guarantee that you will receive such information at the same time as any of our other clients, for example, because of delays in the method of transmission. Any published research reports or commentary may appear in one or more screen information services.

We may from time to time change or prevent or restrict the use of any Security Codes relating to the System without notice or liability. You may change your Security Codes, and any change shall be effective upon us receiving notice of the change.

You will also promptly notify us in writing of any loss or theft of any Security Codes relating to the System, the termination of the employment of any of your Authorised Representatives (or of the authorisation of an Authorised Representative to use the System on behalf of you) or if you believe (or have reason to suspect) that the confidentiality of any such Security Codes has been compromised or that there has been or may be any unauthorised use of the System.
- 11.4 Responsibility for Security Codes and use of the System: You will be solely responsible for the use of all Security Codes assigned or provided to you (whether by us or by any third party) and for any acts or omissions during such use, and we shall be entitled to treat any access to or use of the System as having been duly authorised on your behalf where it appears that the appropriate Security Codes have been used and, accordingly, you will comply with all obligations to us in respect of a Transaction executed through the System regardless of whether or not it was effected on your behalf by an Authorised Representative.

- 11.6 No representation or warranty: We make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the System or its capabilities, or the results that may be obtained by you from using the System. All representations and warranties express or implied, statutory or otherwise, as to such matters are hereby expressly excluded, to the extent permitted by applicable law and regulatory rules.
- 11.7 Use of the System: You will ensure that you and your Authorised Representatives only use the System in accordance with these Terms of Business and information which we or a Third Party Server make available to you from time to time regarding the functions, manner of operation, access to or use of the System or similar documentation and information (the “System Documentation”).
- 11.8 Information and prices displayed on the System: Information made available by the System as to the prices or other terms on which the Bank may execute Transactions with you is indicative only, is subject to change, and shall not be regarded as an offer or agreement to execute any transaction with you or a solicitation of you to make any such offer to us. Where prices displayed via the System refer to a specific lot of securities, discounts or premiums may be applicable to odd lot trades.
- 11.9 System information and confidentiality: Information made available by the System is given in good faith and is derived from sources believed to be accurate and reliable but has not been independently verified by us. Accordingly, we give no representation or warranty as to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of any such information or endorse any information displayed or distributed through the System and you acknowledge that any reliance on any such information is at your sole risk and that the Bank shall have no liability in respect thereof (except in the case of wilful default or fraud) and you will not make any claim against us in respect of any such matter. System Documentation may specify other terms that shall apply to particular information made available by the system.

11.10 Use of System Information: You will use information made available by the System as to the prices or other terms on which the Bank may execute Transactions with you and as to Transactions executed through the System solely for the purpose of determining whether to execute and executing Transactions through the System and settling those Transactions and shall not disclose or disseminate any such information or any other information made available by the System to any person other than us except (a) as otherwise required by applicable law, (b) as consistent with industry conventions, in disclosing the second, most competitive bid or “cover” in a trade or (c) with the prior written consent of the Bank.

11.11 Our retention and use of information available from use of the System: We are entitled to retain and use all information relating to any Transactions or instructions and all information provided by you by means of or in connection with your use of the System in the same manner as similar information obtained otherwise than by using the System and in connection with the use, development, improvement and modification of the System and, where the System is accessed by you via a Third Party Server, we shall have the right to pass on such information to that third party. Information provided by you by means of or in connection with your use of the System may be included in a database owned by us or a member of the Group. Such information may also be used by us in connection with the development, improvement or modification of any system.

12.1 Margin call: You agree to pay us on demand such sums by way of margin as are required from time to time under the Applicable Rules of any relevant Market or as we may in our discretion reasonably require for the purposes of protecting ourselves against loss or risk of loss on present, future or contemplated Transactions under these Terms of Business.

12.2 Form of margin: Unless otherwise agreed, margin must be paid in cash. The currency of the cash margin you pay to us shall be the currency of the relevant underlying Transaction (if applicable) or the relevant Market although we may in our discretion decide to accept payments of cash margin in other currencies from

- 12.3 Non-cash margin: Where we agree to accept non-cash collateral, it must be in a form acceptable to us. The value of the non-cash collateral and the proportion of that value to be taken into account for margin purposes shall be determined by us in our absolute discretion.
- 12.4 Right of retention: If there is any Event of Default or these Terms of Business terminates, we will not be obliged to repay any cash margin for as long as it is required under the rules of any relevant Market or to the extent that you owe or may owe obligations to us. - 12.5 Set off on default: If there is an Event of Default or the agreement constituted by these terms of business terminates, we may set off the balance of the cash margin owed by us to you against your obligations (as reasonably valued by us) as they become due and payable to us and we shall be obliged to pay you (or entitled to claim from you, as appropriate) only the net balance after all obligations have been taken into account in accordance with the Netting Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) to the extent that applicable non-disclosure, confidentiality, Bank secrecy, data privacy or other law imposes non-disclosure requirements on transaction and similar information required or permitted to be disclosed as contemplated herein but permits a party to waive such requirements by consent, the deemed consent under these Disclosure Terms shall be a consent for purposes of such law; (ii) any agreement between the parties to maintain confidentiality or information contained in the Covered Agreement or in any non-disclosure, confidentiality or other agreement shall continue to apply to the extent that such agreement is not inconsistent with the disclosure of information in connection with the Reporting Requirements as referred to herein, and (iii) nothing herein is intended to limit the scope of any other consent to disclosure separately given by each party to the other party. You acknowledge that any third party to whom you owe a duty of confidentiality in respect of the information disclosed has consented to the disclosure of that information.
- 19.9 Notification: Where you act as a fund manager or investment manager or in another agency capacity for a Client, these Disclosure Terms are being provided to you acting in such capacity for your Client.

20 CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

20.1 Confidentiality: Subject to any express arrangements between you and us, or as otherwise contemplated under these Terms of Business, we will treat information we receive from you about you, your Transactions and your Accounts, as confidential ("Confidential Information"). This obligation of confidentiality will survive the termination of these Terms of Business. However, you agree that we may disclose your Confidential Information to our Affiliates and that we and our Affiliates may disclose your Confidential Information to a third party in the following circumstances:

20.1.1 to those who provide services to us or act as our agents in connection with the services we provide under these Terms of Business on the understanding that they will have a commensurate obligation to keep the Confidential Information confidential;

20.1.2 to anyone to whom we may transfer or assign any of our rights or obligations under or in respect of, or enter into a transaction in connection with, these Terms of Business or any Product Agreement, in each case on the understanding that they will have a commensurate obligation to keep the Confidential Information confidential;

20.1.3 to any regulatory or governmental agency or where we are required to do so by Applicable Regulations or by court order; or

Any information which either (i) was already in our possession prior to delivery by you, (ii) was or becomes available in the public domain other than as a result of disclosure by us, (iii) becomes available to us from a third party who we do not know may be under an obligation of confidentiality to you, or (iv) was or is independently developed by us, shall not be “Confidential Information” for the purposes of this clause 19.1.

20.2.4 that we and our Affiliates may use their information for marketing purposes (including letter, telephone, email or other methods) to inform you or them about services which may be of interest to you or them;

20.2.5 that this may involve disclosure of their information and transfer of their information to any country, including countries outside the EEA which may not have strong data protection laws or where authorities may have access to their information, provided, however, where we do transfer personal data to countries outside the EEA, we will make sure that a comparable level of protection as we are required to provide in the UK is applied to their personal data;

20.2.6 that we may retain their information after you cease to be a client, for as long as permitted for legal, regulatory, fraud and legitimate business purposes; and

20.2.7 that they have rights of access to, and correction of, their information, for which a fee may be charged, which they may exercise by contacting the Data Protection Officer via LondonCompliance@cba.com.au.

21 TERMINATION AND EVENTS OF DEFAULT

21.1 Termination: These Terms of Business may be terminated either by us or by you by written notice in advance from one party to the other. Service of notice of termination on us shall be effective only upon receipt thereof by us.

21.2 Effect of termination: Termination shall be without prejudice to the completion of Transactions already initiated and will not affect outstanding rights (including your right to collateral) or actual, future or contingent liabilities and these Terms of Business will apply to these rights and liabilities until all Transactions and contracts have been closed out, settled or delivery effected and all liabilities finally, unconditionally and irrevocably discharged.

- 21.3 Close-out: Transactions already initiated shall be settled in the normal way except to the extent that these Terms of Business provide for close-out of Transactions whether automatically or at the option of either party, and, if at the option of a party, that party has exercised such option. To such extent, Transactions shall be dealt with in accordance with these close-out provisions.
- 21.4 Survival: Termination will not affect any provision of these Terms of Business which is intended to survive termination.
- 21.5 Events of default: Each of the following, at our election, will be an event of default (an “Event of Default”) for the purposes of these Terms of Business:
- 21.5.1 Failure to pay or deliver: You fail to make any payment or to make or take delivery or meet any margin call upon the due date and such failure continues for one Business Day after we give you notice of the occurrence of such an event.
- 21.5.2 Default on other obligations: You fail to perform any of your other obligations hereunder and where capable of remedy, do not remedy such failure within seven days after the Bank serves written notice relating to such failure on you.
- 21.5.3 Act of Insolvency: If you are subject to any Insolvency Event (as defined in the Definitions Annex) you will notify the Bank forthwith if an Insolvency Event occurs in relation to you.
- 21.5.4 Representations incorrect: Any representation made by you was incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or repeated or deemed to have been made or repeated.
- 21.5.5 Cross default: In relation to you, a default or Event of Default or the like occurs or is declared under any other agreement of whatever nature with the Bank or any of the Bank’s Affiliates.
- 21.5.6 Material adverse change: You or any of your Affiliates suffer a material adverse change in financial condition, results, operations, prospects, properties, business or operations as determined by the Bank in the Bank’s absolute discretion.
- 21.6 Default remedy–Right of retention: If either Party (the “Defaulting Party”) fails to make any payment or to deliver any Investments due to the other party (the “Non-Defaulting Party”) (or agents used by the Non-Defaulting Party), the Non-Defaulting Party reserves the right without prior notice to the Defaulting Party to release any funds, Investments or other assets (including collateral) held on the Defaulting Party’s behalf on such terms (including as to price) as the Non-Defaulting Party considers appropriate and to close out or liquidate any contracts or positions in respect of any of the Defaulting Party’s investments and to apply and offset the proceeds of such realisation against the amount due to be paid or delivered. For such purpose, the Non-Defaulting Party may value any delivery obligation by the Defaulting Party at such amount as the Non-Defaulting Party reasonably considers appropriate and may translate payment obligations denominated in one currency into any other currency for the purpose of exercising any such right of set off. Any balance remaining after the exercise of such rights shall be payable to the Defaulting Party upon request.

- 21.7 Interest: Interest will be payable by the Defaulting Party to the Non-Defaulting Party on demand and will accrue on such sum until the Defaulting Party pays it (before as well as after judgement). Such interest will, unless otherwise agreed, be calculated at the rate per annum determined by the Non-Defaulting Party to be equal to the loss of interest suffered by the Non-Defaulting Party or, as applicable, the cost to the Non-Defaulting Party at prevailing market rates of funding the amount of such default from such sources and for such periods as the Non-Defaulting Party may decide.
- 21.8 The terms of this clause 21 are supplemental to any Product Agreements we have entered into or may enter into with you or any relevant separate netting, margining or collateral agreement. The terms and conditions of such Product Agreements and other supplemental agreements take precedence over this clause 21 to the extent that they conflict, and in respect of the Transactions to which that agreement relates.

22 LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

- 22.1 Exemptions from liability: Excepting negligence, fraud or wilful default, the Group and/or the Group's directors, officers, employees and agents shall not be liable for:
- 22.1.1 any loss of opportunity whereby the value of any investments purchased, held or sold by us on your behalf might have increased; or
 - 22.1.2 any loss (including any taxation or increase in taxation incurred by you or for any failure to insure) resulting from any act or omission made under or in relation to or in connection with these Terms of Business or the services provided thereunder or as contemplated therein; or
 - 22.1.3 any delay or change in market conditions before any transaction is affected; or
 - 22.1.4 any decline in the value of any Investments purchased, held or sold by the Group on your behalf; or
 - 22.1.5 the solvency, acts or omissions of any third party by whom or in whose control any of your investments (or documents of, or certificates evidencing title thereto) may be held or through whom any transactions may be affected. However, the Group will make available to you, when and to the extent reasonably so requested, any rights that you may have against such persons and we will use reasonable endeavours to assist you to pursue any such rights.
- 22.2 No liability for third parties: Neither we, our Associates, nor our or their officers, directors and employees accept any responsibility for (i) any loss, liability or cost which you may suffer or incur arising from the negligence, wilful default or fraud of any third party (including any broker, bank, agent, custodian, investment exchange, depository or clearing house) which or who we have taken reasonable care in appointing and which or who may act on our behalf or in accordance with our instructions (or fail to do so) in connection with the provision of our services and activities to you under these Terms of Business; or (ii) consequential, indirect or special damages, however caused.

- 22.3 No exclusion: Nothing in these Terms of Business will exclude or restrict to an extent prohibited by the FCA Rules any obligation we may have to you, nor any liability we may incur to you, in respect of a breach by us of the regulatory system or the FCA Rules.
- 22.4 No liability for errors: Neither party shall be liable to the other party for any loss that party may incur as a result of any error in transmitting an order or an instruction.
- 22.5 Indemnity: You will indemnify us and our employees, agents, delegates and Associates against any costs, loss, liability or expense whatsoever which may be suffered or incurred by us and/or them directly or indirectly in connection with or as a result of any service and activity performed or action permitted under these Terms of Business except to the extent that the expense or loss is due to our or their respective negligence, wilful default or fraud.
- 22.6 Judgement Currency Indemnity: The obligation of each party to make payments in the currency in which they are due will be enforceable as an alternative or additional cause of action to the extent (if any) by which such actual receipt falls short of the full amount of the appropriate currency and will not be affected by judgement being obtained for any other sums due under these Terms of Business and any relevant Transaction or contract.

- 23.1.4 Validity: These Terms of Business and each Transaction or contract are its valid and legally binding obligations, enforceable against it in accordance with these terms except for the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganisation, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and to general equitable principles.
- 23.1.5 Violations: Its performance of these Terms of Business and each transaction or contract does not and will not violate, contravene, conflict with or constitute a default under any provision of its memorandum and articles of association (or equivalent constitutional documents) or any law, regulation, rule, decree, order, judgment or charge, contract, trust deed or other instrument binding on it or any of its assets.

23.2 Representation and warranties (Part Two): You agree and confirm to us that the following are and will be true at all times:

23.2.1 Statements by us: In relation to your acceptance of these Terms of Business, we have not made, and you are not relying upon, any statements, representations, promises or undertakings whatsoever that are not contained herein.

23.2.3.5 the principal can make the representations and warranties set out in this clause 22;

23.2.3.7 you have obtained and will continue to maintain all the necessary authorisations, licences, consents and approvals to engage in all business with us;

23.2.3.8 in entering into any Transaction on behalf of the principal, you have no reason to believe that the principal is restricted or

23.2.3.12 you shall immediately notify us if you cease to act for any principal or if the basis upon which you act changes in any way that would affect these Terms of Business or any Transaction made hereunder; and

23.2.4 Taxation: You will inform us in writing if any acts or omissions by us contemplated by these Terms of Business could adversely affect your taxation position. In the absence of any such written notice, we will assume that there are no such constraints on our services and activities under these Terms of Business.

23.2.5 System security: Where you use any System to trade electronically, you have developed and will maintain in effect security procedures which are adequate to prevent the execution of unauthorised trades, the transmission of incorrect offers and access to the System by any unauthorised person or entity.

23.2.6 No warranty: Where we provide you with services and activities subject to these Terms of Business, we provide no warranty as to the outcome of such services and activities for you. - 23.3.5 you will not send orders or otherwise take any action that could create a false impression of the demand or value for a financial instrument, or send orders which you have reason to believe are in breach of Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations. You shall observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of persons in your position and not take any step which would cause us to fail to observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of persons in our position; and
- 23.3.6 upon demand, you will promptly provide us with such information as we may reasonably require to evidence the matters referred to in this clause or to comply with any Applicable Rules or Applicable Regulations or respond to requests from any infrastructure or regulatory body in relation to your orders or Transactions.

28 MISCELLANEOUS

28.1 Intellectual property rights: You acknowledge that all intellectual property rights belong to us or our licensors and are protected under Applicable Regulations. All rights not expressly granted are reserved.

28.2 Rights of third parties: These Terms of Business do not create any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 which is enforceable by any person who is not a party to it. However, that Act shall apply to enable our Associates (or our or their officers, directors or employees) to enforce rights or rely on limitations of liability under these Terms of Business.

28.3 Delegation: We shall be entitled to delegate the performance of any of our services and activities. Such delegation may be in respect of your account generally, or may relate to specified investments or types of investment. We may employ agents we select on terms that we believe are appropriate.

28.4 Assignment and successors: Subject to the paragraph below, you agree that we may cause all or any part of our rights, benefits and/or obligations under or in connection with these Terms of Business to be transferred to any Affiliate or to a successor, without your prior consent but subject to giving you notice thereof.

If they are not, then remedies may be pursued immediately without the need to serve any notice requiring performance, unless that notice is required by these Terms of Business.
- 28.9 No Waivers: The failure to exercise or delay in exercising a right or remedy under the Terms of Business shall not constitute a waiver of the right or remedy or a waiver of any other rights or remedies and no single or partial exercise of a right or remedy under these Terms of Business shall prevent any further exercise of the right or remedy or the exercise of any other right or remedy.
- 28.10 Force Majeure: We shall not be liable for taking or not taking, and shall not be obliged to take or refrain from taking, any action which is beyond our power to take or refrain from taking wholly or partly as a result of a state of affairs (including any change of applicable regulations or any directive or policy whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) which was beyond our control to prevent and the effect of which is beyond us.
- We will not be liable to you for any delay in performance or for the non-performance of any of our obligations hereunder by reason of any cause beyond our reasonable control, or for any losses caused by the occurrence of any contingency beyond our reasonable control. Classification as an Eligible Counterparty and differences in FCA protections

Where we treat you as an Eligible Counterparty, you will be entitled to fewer protections under the Rules than you would be entitled to as a Professional client. If you request categorisation as an Eligible Counterparty and we agree to such categorisation, we would no longer be required by regulatory rules to provide certain protections granted to professional clients. However, notwithstanding the absence of applicable regulatory rules, we would endeavour to provide a service which is effective overall and commercially reasonable. The regulatory protections concerned include formal requirements in the following areas: (a) to act in accordance with your best interests; (b) not to give or receive inducements; (c) to achieve best execution in respect of your orders; (d) to execute orders subject to other constraints as regards timing and handling relative to other clients' orders; and (e) to ensure that information we provide is fair, clear and not misleading. In particular, and in addition to the above:

- (i) we are not required to provide you with best execution in executing your orders, and the Rules on handling client orders (prompt execution, aggregation of orders and allocation) generally do not apply in relation to eligible counterparties;
- (ii) we are not required to disclose to you any information regarding any fees or commissions or non-monetary benefits that we pay or receive;
- (iii) we are not required to assess the appropriateness of a product or service that we provide to you but can assume that you have the expertise to choose the most appropriate product or service for yourself;
- (iv) the rules on labelling of non-independent research do not apply in relation to eligible counterparties; and
- (v) we are not required to provide you with risk disclosures on the products or services that you select from us.

Annex 3
Money Market Deposit Agreement

1 General

1.1 CBA may from time to time accept wholesale money market cash deposits (each a “Deposit”) from the Depositor. Each Deposit will be governed by this agreement (the “Agreement”) and the related Confirmation and CBA’s Terms of Business, as defined below. All Deposits are entered into in reliance on the fact that this Agreement and all Confirmations form a single agreement between CBA and the Depositor (each a “Party” and, together, the “Parties”), and the Parties would not otherwise enter into any Deposits.

It is hereby agreed as follows:

1.2 The terms and conditions set out in this agreement are provided to you on the basis that none of the Accounts we provide will be a “Payment Account” within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations (“PSRs”) and that you are a Large Enterprise. A “Large Enterprise” is a partnership, company or other organisation who, when the Account was opened, had 10 or more employees or an annual turnover of more than € 2,000,000 (or sterling equivalent). In the event that you cease to be a Large Enterprise based on your annual turnover (or annual income, if a charity) you will advise us and we will, if appropriate, re-categorise you as a Micro-Enterprise or Small Charity. If we do this you may be subject to different terms and conditions or we may cease to provide wholesale deposit services to you under this agreement.

1.3 When a deposit is made by the Depositor, we will issue you with a confirmation which will confirm the details of your deposit including the Commencement Date and Maturity Date. If you roll over your deposit at the end of the Fixed Term, details of the new Deposit will be confirmed to you.

1.4 CBA may refuse to accept a Deposit without giving a reason. We may also terminate all or any Deposit where there is a justifiable financial or legal reason, for example fraud or bankruptcy. In the event that the Deposit becomes subject to any direction of any authority pursuant to sanctions, money-laundering or any other similar regulation, any action taken by CBA pursuant to such direction will not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

1.5 Money Market Deposits are a fixed term deposit which cannot be broken prior to stated maturity other than at CBA’s unilateral discretion and in any case without 31 days’ notice.

1.6 CBA will repay the Deposit at the maturity date specified in the Confirmation, along with interest calculated at the rate specified in the Confirmation.

1.7 CBA will withhold or deduct any amounts it is required to by law from the amount it repays to the Depositor on the maturity date.

- 1.8 The Deposit is not transferrable by the Depositor without CBA's prior written consent. The Depositor must not declare a trust over or grant a security interest in the deposit without CBA's prior written consent.
- 1.9 The Deposit is not a security, and no securities laws in any relevant jurisdiction apply to its acceptance or any purported transfer.
- 1.10 CBA is an approved bank for the purposes of the FCA Client Money Rules. Where funds are received by CBA that are not immediately applicable to delivery versus payment transactions, they will be held in an account at an applicable bank and this means the Depositor's money will be held by CBA as banker and not as trustee. As a result, such money will not be held in accordance with the FCA Client Money Rules.
- 1.11 The Depositor agrees to provide to CBA all information and documentation as CBA may request from time to time and to promptly notify CBA of any changes to information previously provided to CBA.
- 1.12 CBA is authorised to disclose any information regarding its business with the Depositor to any or all of the following persons:
 - 1.12.1 any of the Depositor's affiliates;
 - 1.12.2 any member, employee or agent of any of the Commonwealth Bank Group, its subsidiaries and all entities controlled by any of the foregoing, including all branches and representative or regional offices (the "Group");
 - 1.12.3 any auditors or professional advisers of any member of the Group;
 - 1.12.4 any relevant regulatory or government authority; and
 - 1.12.5 any person when otherwise required to so do in accordance with the laws of any relevant or applicable jurisdiction.
- 1.13 This Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of England and each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 1.14 The Depositor irrevocably waives any sovereign and other immunity it may have in any jurisdiction from legal proceedings, attachment before or after judgment or execution judgment.
- 1.15 The Deposit with CBA is not a deposit with, or liability of, any other member of the Group.
- 1.16 We are required to provide you with an information sheet annually, in relation to the protection provided for your eligible deposits with Commonwealth Bank of Australia.
- 1.17 In accordance with the Deposit Guarantee Schemes Directive, the Bank has provided the Depositor with an information sheet and an exclusions list containing information about the deposit protection provided by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (the "Information Sheet"). The Depositor will return to the Bank in such manner as advised by the Bank a signed copy of the Information Sheet and any other Information Sheet subsequently sent to the Depositor by the Bank in order to acknowledge receipt of any such Information Sheet and the exclusions. In addition, by accepting this Agreement the Depositor agrees that it will be deemed to acknowledge receipt of the Information Sheet and the exclusions, and that this acknowledgement will be deemed repeated by the Depositor each time the Depositor places a Deposit with CBA.

- 1.18 This Agreement is available at <https://www.commbank.com.au/about-us/our-company/international-branches/europe.html> and combined with the Terms of Business, constitutes the entire Agreement and understanding between the Parties and shall not be modified, altered, changed, or amended unless in writing and signed by both Parties.
- 1.19 No person shall have any right to enforce any provision of this Agreement under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 1.20 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, and this has the same effect as if the signatures on the counterparts were on a single copy of this Agreement.

Executed as an agreement.
