We may take steps to verify the information we collect; for example, a birth certificate provided as identification may be verified with records held by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages to protect against impersonation, or we may verify with an employer that employment and remuneration information provided in an application for credit is accurate.

You need to provide us with accurate and relevant information

If you provide us with incomplete or inaccurate information, we may not be able to provide you with the products or services you are seeking.

- organisations, including overseas organisations, to whom we outsource certain functions. For greater detail on outsourcing, please refer to our Privacy Policy Statement, which is available at www.commbank.com.au or on request from any branch of the Bank.

In all circumstances where our contractors, agents and outsourced service providers become aware of personal information, confidentiality arrangements apply. Personal information may only be used by our contractors, agents and outsourced service providers for our purposes.

We may also disclose personal information to other financial institutions and organisations at their request if you seek credit from them.

We may be allowed or obliged to disclose information by law; for example, under Court Orders or Statutory Notices pursuant to taxation or social security laws.
