Things you should know about table 1.2.1

- You can only use your account for online shopping or mail order if you have a Debit MasterCard.
- You can’t make scheduled payments from GoalSaver accounts.
- You can only move money or schedule payments from your NetBank Saver into a linked transaction account.
- For Youthsaver accounts, you can’t use phone banking for Bpay transactions.
- For Youthsaver accounts, if you had a card issued before 21 July 2017, your card functionality will remain as it was prior to this date.
- For Passbook accounts, you can’t schedule a future payment or transfer through Bpay or NetBank.
- Cheques and other transaction documents become our property when the transaction is processed or cheque is presented.
- *Electronic transfer may be available for some passbook accounts.
1.3. Limits on the amount you can take out
There are limits on the amount of cash you can take out each day using a card at an ATM or in store at an EFTPOS terminal. The daily limit is the total you can take out from all accounts linked to your card. Your daily limit depends on when you got your card and what type of card you have. Replacement cards have the same limit, except that any replacement Debit MasterCard issued on or after 9 February 2015, has a $2,000 daily withdrawal limit.

<tr>

<td>$2,000 (including replacement cards)</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You can change your card limit at any time. If you ask for a higher limit, your liability for unauthorised transactions may increase.

For Passbook accounts, withdrawals from post offices or agencies are limited to a maximum of $2,000 over a seven day period.

There are also withdrawal limits for online and mobile banking. See the Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions and the CommBank app Terms and Conditions.

1.4. How to set up and cancel direct debits
You can arrange for direct debits to automatically come out of your account. You can ask us to cancel a direct debit and we’ll do this promptly — we suggest you also contact the third party debiting your account.

You can also arrange for direct debits to automatically come out of your Debit Mastercard. You must contact the third party debiting your account to cancel these type of direct debits. If the recipient still continues debiting money, contact us so we can try to get your money back.

1.5. Overdrawing your account
At times, your account balance may fall below zero (be “overdrawn”) – for example:

- Where we decide to honour a direct debit, a scheduled BPay payment, a purchase using a card linked to your account or a cheque, at our discretion.
- When a card purchase does not require our authorisation, systems are unavailable or a merchant settles a transaction late.

If this happens, you’ll need to pay us the overdrawn amount immediately, along with interest and an overdrawing approval fee, if applicable to your account (see 3.1 and 3.2). Any deposits into your account will be first applied to pay the overdrawn amount and any interest owed on that amount.

We are under no obligation to allow a payment that would overdraw your account. If we decide not to allow it, we may charge a dishonour fee (see 3.2).

If you don’t want us to honour payments which cause your account to become overdrawn you can disable the overdraw feature on your account at any time using any of the methods below:

- By calling 13 2221
- By visiting your nearest branch

Disabling the overdraw feature will not stop transactions that are processed in the event a card purchase does not require our authorisation, our system is unavailable or a merchant settles a transaction late.

You should only keep the overdraw feature if you use it irregularly to cover any unplanned shortfall in funds to meet a payment. If you need ongoing credit, one of our credit products are likely to be suitable.

If you choose to disable this feature, any payments that exceed the money available in your account will not be allowed, and a dishonour fee may apply (see 3.2).
1.6. When money deposited in your account may not be immediately available

When money is deposited into your account, you may have to wait for it to become available. For example, we may place a hold on funds when someone puts money in your account, you deposit a cheque or you make a deposit at a post office where the transaction can't be processed electronically. If we do let you draw on uncleared funds but then the deposit doesn't clear, we charge it back to your account. This may cause your account to become overdrawn.

When you deposit a cheque into your Passbook account, you won't be able to transfer any money online or make online BPAY payments for the next three business days. This applies to your available funds, as well as uncleared funds.

1.7. International transactions

You'll be charged in Australian dollars for purchases and cash advances in other currencies. These are typically converted to Australian dollars by the relevant card scheme, which determines the exchange rates and conversion process. In some cases overseas merchants or ATM operators may allow you to transact in Australian dollars, in which case they set the exchange rate.

We charge an access fee (see 3.2) for international transactions you make:
- While overseas
- In Australia (e.g. online), where the merchant, or the financial institution or entity processing the transaction, is located overseas.

MasterCard and Visa convert purchases and withdrawals made in foreign currencies into Australian dollar equivalents at the rates set by them on the day they process the transactions (which is not necessarily the day that the transaction was performed).

For more information about holds on electronic transfers, see the Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions.

2. Managing your account

2.1. How you’ll receive your account statements

We provide statements and notices electronically where:
- you have selected an account or service which only offers statements and notices electronically;
- you have not told us that you don’t want to receive your statements and notices electronically. You can let us know at any time, that you don’t want to receive your statements and notices electronically by updating your preferences on NetBank or calling us on 13 22 21; or
- these terms and conditions do not otherwise provide that your statements or notices will be provided in another way.

Where applicable, we will give you your statements and notices electronically through:

(a) NetBank - To receive your statements and notices electronically, you must give us your current email address and you must register for NetBank. If you don’t, we may switch your delivery method to paper, and you may incur a paper statement fee. We’ll let you know when the information is there by:
  • Email to an email address you have given us for contacting you;
  • SMS message to a mobile telephone number you have given us for contacting you; or
  • Push notification from the CommBank App that the information is available for retrieval by you; or
(b) Any other means we agree with you.

You can change your electronic address at any time on NetBank or by calling us on 13 22 21.

We record that you received an electronic statement or notice on the day that our notification enters the first information system outside CommBank (e.g. the server of your email address).

Even if we normally provide electronic statements or notices, we may occasionally send you a paper statement or notice instead (e.g. if we are unable to provide the information electronically).

We’ll send you statements every six months (standard cycle). If your account has a Passbook, then your Passbook is your statement. You can ask us to send you statements more frequently (a fee may apply, see 3.2).

The statements will be sent to email addresses last notified to the Bank by you and if your details have changed you must update your contact details immediately.

Check your statement as soon as you get it. If you see any transactions you’re unsure about, let us know straight away. Remember that the date you made a transaction could be different to the date on the statement (it may be the day we process the transaction — or, for overseas transactions, the transaction date in the relevant country).
If you have a joint account, and the same email or postal address, we will send one statement or notice addressed to all of you at that address.

At any time, you can ask for a statement by logging into NetBank or calling us. For some accounts, you can get limited information from an ATM. A fee may apply.

2.2. How to protect your account
Make sure you protect your account so other people can’t use it. We’ve set out some suggestions below. If your card, cheque book or Passbook is lost or stolen, or you think someone else knows your PIN or password or has used your account, let us know straight away.

If you don’t, you may be responsible for any financial losses (see section 4).

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>

2.3. Using a joint account or an account with more than one signatory
If you are joint account owners, you can let us know your preferred method of operation, that is, whether authorisation from only one (sole operation) or all (joint operation) joint account owner(s) or (in the case of non-personal accounts, for example, corporate or Self-Managed Super Fund accounts) one or all account signatories, is required before we can act on an instruction (for example, withdraw or transfer money, appoint an authorised operator, change your daily withdrawal limit, set up or cancel direct debits or close the account). If you don’t let us know your preferred method of operation, we will take instructions from any joint account holder or account signatory — that is, sole operation applies.

The method of operation that you instruct us to apply is subject to the following exceptions:
(a) Any joint account holder (or authorised signatory) acting on their own will always be permitted to:
• Change the account from sole to joint operation.
• Change the method of delivery for account statements and notices — for example, from paper to electronic or electronic to paper.

(b) Authorisation from all account holders (or authorised signatories in the case of a non-personal account) is required before we will change your method of operation from joint to sole operation.
(c) Even if your method of operation is sole operation, we will never permit an account signatory (in the case of a non-personal account) to appoint or remove another account signatory. Account signatories can only be appointed or removed by the account holder(s).

If an account owner or signatory takes out more money than is currently available in the account, we can ask any account owner to repay it.

If a joint account owner passes away, the account belongs to the other account owner(s).

• Change the account address. The account address is the address you nominate, when you open your account, as the address to which you want us to deliver your account statements and notices.

• Switch your account type to another account type to which these terms and conditions apply. You agree that these terms and conditions (as amended from time to time), will apply to the new account type that your account is switched to.

• Place a stop on the account, for example in case of a dispute between account owners.

A signatory may register and maintain a PayID for your account, including locking or closing a PayID or initiating a PayID transfer to another account in accordance with the specified method of operation and the PayID Terms and Conditions. For this purpose, you agree that the signatory may use your name, account name, telephone number and email address. You also agree that we may use, store or share this information with the PayID service for others to access when facilitating payments or registering PayIDs and for reasonable secondary purposes including transaction tracing and investigations. A copy of the PayID terms and conditions is available at commbank.com.au/payid

2.4. Using your account if you’re under 18
If you’re younger than 14, you’ll need a parent or guardian’s permission to use your account.

If your parent or guardian gives you permission to use your account or open a new one, you can also use any other accounts in your name — including accounts opened in the future.

When you turn 14, you will be able to operate all accounts which have been opened in your name. You can also ask us to remove your parent’s or guardian’s access at this time, otherwise we will automatically remove it when you turn 18.

For more information about protecting your account online, see the Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions.

If you have a Youthsaver account, we’ll contact you in the year you turn 18 to transfer your balance to one of our other savings or transaction accounts. We may make contribution payments to schools for participating in the School Banking program and processing School Banking deposits. These payments may include:

- An establishment payment when the first ever School Banking deposit is processed, or if a school rejoins after 12+ months.
- An annual contribution payment each calendar year when the first School Banking deposit is processed based on the number of students who made at least one School Banking deposit in the prior year.
- A regular savers contribution payment for every 10 School Banking deposits processed per student.

If you’re under 18, where permitted by law, we may allow any parent or guardian to act on your behalf in relation to your account.

2.4.1. Parental controls and limits when you’re under 18

The person(s) who is listed with us as the parent or guardian authorised to operate your Smart Access account, can set a weekly limit on the withdrawals that can be made from your Smart Access account using a card.

Only the following withdrawals are included in the weekly limit (a week is the full period between midnight and midnight on Sunday in Australian Eastern Standard time):

- Cash withdrawals from ATMs, through EFTPOS and in branch; and
- Purchases made through EFTPOS and online.

If a parent or guardian operating authority is added to your Smart Access account:

- Before 4 April 2017, the person(s) who is listed with us as the parent or guardian authorised to operate your Smart Access account can set an initial weekly limit at any amount
- On or after 4 April 2017, the person(s) who is listed with us as the parent or guardian authorised to operate your Smart Access account can set an initial weekly limit of $20.

You can view the limits and locks on cards linked to your Smart Access account at any time via the Youth app.

2.4.2. Using a debit MasterCard when you’re under 14

If you’re under 14, you can apply for a debit MasterCard linked to your Smart Access account only if your Smart Access account has a parent/guardian operating authority attached to it. No other person, including any person with a parent/guardian or any other operating authority attached to your account, can apply for any of their cards to be linked to your Smart Access account. If the parent/guardian operating authority is removed after we’ve issued you with a debit MasterCard but before you turn 14, your debit MasterCard will be cancelled.

If your debit MasterCard is issued while a parent/guardian operating authority applies to your Smart Access account, your debit MasterCard will be automatically locked against all online transactions and all in-store transactions outside Australia. The person with parent/guardian operating authority can change the locks applied to your debit MasterCard at any time via the CommBank app. They can also add other locks to your card, including a temporary lock on your debit MasterCard if you misplace it and a lock on contactless debit MasterCard payments. You can view the locks on your debit MasterCard at any time via the Youth app. The CommBank app Terms and Conditions (available when you download the app) and the Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions (available at commbank.com.au or from your local CommBank branch) apply when you use the CommBank app.

2.5. Streamline Basic accounts

These accounts are only available to customers with one of these Australian government cards:

- Commonwealth Seniors Health Card
- Pensioner Concession Card
- Health Care Card

—and where your government pension or payments are paid into this account.

If you no longer have a valid concession card, let us know straight away. If you’re unable to show your concession card when we ask for it, we may close the account or switch it to another account type.

You can only have one Streamline Basic account per customer.
2.6. Using Complete Access with an Everyday Offset Feature

A Complete Access account with Everyday Offset feature is a transaction account that is linked to an eligible CommBank home loan.

A Complete Access with Everyday Offset feature charges no Monthly account fees or Withdrawal fees but other fees may apply. Refer to 3.2. below for details.

From 9 May 2020, a Complete Access account with an Everyday Offset feature will automatically revert to a Smart Access when you:

- Close your home loan
- Switch your home loan to a home loan type that isn’t eligible for the Everyday Offset
- Have an overdraft on your account.

See your home loan contract for further details on how the Everyday Offset feature operates.

2.7. Self-Managed Super Fund accounts

Each trustee of a Self-Managed Super Fund (SMSF) is an owner of the account. If any of the trustees change, you need to let us know straight away.

2.8. Commonwealth Direct Investment Accounts

If your account is linked to a CommSec trading account, you authorise us to debit your account for costs relating to your dealings in securities through CommSec, including brokerage and other fees.

Unless you tell us otherwise, each owner or signatory may operate the account independently of each other. If you have a business account password, it can be used for all accounts related to that business and can be used to get account information, update details and stop cheques.

2.9. Information on accounts with Cheque access

1. Generally, cheques will be cleared in about three days.

2. If you require faster clearance, known as special clearance, inform the teller when you are depositing the cheque to your account – a fee is charged for this service.

3. The drawer of a cheque may ask their bank to stop a cheque - we will act on these instructions if the cheque has not already been paid. If you need to stop payment on a cheque you must contact us immediately with the cheque number – a fee may be charged for this service.

4. Crossing a cheque – that is, drawing two parallel lines vertically on a cheque - acts as an instruction to a bank to accept the cheque only into a bank account and not to cash it.

5. Including the words ‘not negotiable’ in the crossing helps protect the true owner of the cheque if it is lost or stolen. Including the words ‘account payee only’ in the cheque serves as a warning to a bank not to accept the deposit of the cheque except to an account of the named payee.

6. The deletion of the words ‘or bearer’ from a cheque directs the bank to pay the cheque only to the payee or in accordance with the written endorsement of the payee.

7. To reduce the risk of unauthorised changes to a cheque make sure that you write only in non-erasable pen, complete the cheque carefully and fully, do not sign blank cheques, add appropriate crossings and make sure there are no spaces left before or after the amount.

8. Cheques may be dishonoured if they are irregular in some way, including but not limited to, if the cheque is not signed by the drawer or with the drawer’s authority, has been altered without authority from the drawer, is older than 15 months (stale) or if the cheque bears a date in the future (post-dated).
3. Interest and fees

3.1. Interest
Depending on your account type:

- We pay interest and bonus interest, calculated on the daily positive closing balance
- We charge interest on overdrawn amounts, calculated on the daily negative closing balance.

We pay or debit interest regularly at the times shown in tables 3.1.1 and 3.1.2 below, as well as when you switch accounts or an account is closed.

For our current interest rates, see Interest Rates on Transaction, Savings and Investment Accounts or visit commbank.com.au

Things you should know about table 3.1.1

- Where tiered interest rates apply, one interest rate applies to your entire account balance, with the interest rate depending on how much you have in the account.
- For Pensioner Security accounts, different interest rates apply to the portion of the balance within each band.
- Effective 1 May 2020, for GoalSaver accounts, bonus interest applicable to the balance is paid on the entire account balance. The standard interest applies to the entire account balance. Interest earned on the accounts can’t be redirected automatically to a GoalSaver account.
- For Commonwealth Direct Investment accounts opened before 1 November 2012, interest is paid quarterly.
- You don’t have to provide your Tax File Number (TFN) for your account. However, by law, we must withhold a portion of the interest earned on your account if you have not provided a TFN, a TFN exemption or an ABN, or you’re a non-resident.
- Interest rates including bonus interest rates may be zero. For more information, see Interest Rates on Transaction, Savings Investment Accounts document.
- For Youthsaver accounts, the standard interest rate applies to any portion of the balance above $50,000.
- The time that we start calculating the introductory interest for NetBank Saver accounts may be up to 15 days from the account opening date. The 5 month period that the introductory rate applies commences at the time we start calculating interest.

Things you should know about table 3.2.1

- You may qualify for a waiver of your monthly account fee or withdrawal fees — see 3.2.2.
- Other fees may apply to withdrawals, such as the access fee for cash withdrawal overseas. See 3.2 for details.
- If you have a GoalSaver account and receive an Australian Age, Service or Disability Pension credited directly into the account, you will receive 2 extra assisted withdrawals.
- For Passbook Savings and Savings Investment accounts, the monthly account fee doesn’t apply while the account is inactive.
- Electronic withdrawals are purchases made via EFTPOS in Australia, cash withdrawals and transfers made at a CBA ATM in Australia, NetBank transfers and Bpay, direct debits/scheduled payments, and withdrawals made using self-service telephone banking.
3.2.2. When we won’t charge monthly account fees or withdrawal fees

In these situations, if M is listed for your account type, we won’t charge you a monthly account fee. If W is listed for your account type, we won’t charge a withdrawal fee.

Things you should know about section 3.2.2

- Relationship Balance: we won’t charge you the monthly account fee (M) and/or withdrawal fee (W) on an account if:
  (a) the account:
    (i) is covered by these terms and conditions
    (ii) is held solely or jointly in personal name(s),
    (iii) has been held by you for at least one calendar month since:
    (A) you opened the account or
    (B) the pricing offer applicable to the account changed and
  (b) you have a total of $50,000 or more in Contributing Accounts (Relationship Balance).

- Contributing Accounts are all of the accounts covered by these terms and conditions as well as Accelerator Cash, Farm Management Deposit, Passbook Savings Private Banking, Term Deposit and Viridian Line of Credit accounts that are held either solely or jointly, in personal name(s)

- An account is not a Contributing Account if any account holder is a non-personal entity (for example a trustee, company, association or business) or the account is for business purposes.

- We assess whether you qualify for a Relationship Balance waiver as at the second last business day of each month, with any waiver applying to the fees for that month. For Passbook accounts, any waiver is applied to the fees for the following month.

- Age: for joint accounts, we base the exemption on the age of the oldest account holder.

- If during a month, you switch account types or price options or your account is closed, the fee exemptions set out in section 3.2.2 do not apply. Fees are instead calculated and charged on a pro-rata basis (see section 3.2.3, when we charge fees).

- Eligible CommBank Home Loan: With reference to the table in section 3.2.2, we won’t charge you the monthly account fee (M) on the specified account if:
  (a) the account:
    (i) is covered by these terms and conditions
    (ii) is held solely or jointly in personal name(s)
    (iii) has been held by you for at least one calendar month since:
    (A) you opened the account or
    (B) the pricing offer applicable to the account changed and
  (b) you have a CommBank Home Loan (excluding Viridian Line of Credit, Equity Unlock for Seniors or Staff Housing Loans) with a debit balance of greater than $1, that is held either solely or jointly, in personal names.
  (c) the criteria set out in sub-paragraph (a) and (b) above, is satisfied on the business day prior to the last calendar day of that month with any waiver applying to the fees for that month.

3.2.3. When we charge fees

The monthly account fee and withdrawal fees for transactions made in a month are debited to your account on the first day of the following month. For Passbook accounts, these fees are debited on the first business day of the following month.

The other fees are debited on the day the service is provided or event (for example, cheque dishonour) occurs or the next business day.

If, during a month, you switch account types or price options or your account is closed:

- The monthly account fee for each account type or price option is calculated pro-rata on a daily basis and added together as your total fee for the month.
- Withdrawal fees for a partial month apply if you exceed the monthly fee-free limit that applies to each account type or price option.
- The fee exemptions set out in the table at section 3.2.2 do not apply.
- If you switch from an account type or price option with unlimited withdrawals to one with limits, the limits will apply from the switching date.

Things you should know about section 3.2.3

- In this section 3, “month” means each calendar month, “day” means each calendar day and “business day” excludes weekends and national holidays.

- Call us straight away on 13 2221 (from Australia) or +61 13 2221 (from overseas).

- You need to tell us as soon as:
  • Your card or device is lost or stolen
  • You think someone else has used your account without your permission
  • You think someone else may know your PIN, password or code
  • You notice a mistake or a transaction you didn’t make
  • You make a mistake when making a payment.

You may be responsible for any financial losses if you don’t tell us straight away.

4.1. Getting a refund on unauthorised electronic transactions

These refund rules apply only to electronic transactions. Call us for information about unauthorised manual transactions (such as cheques or when you sign Debit MasterCard vouchers).

4.2. Asking for a refund of an authorised Debit MasterCard transaction

As a MasterCard member, we are able to request a refund (‘chargeback’) of a purchase transaction using your Debit MasterCard in certain situations — for example if the goods weren’t delivered.

To take advantage of this chargeback process, contact us within 30 days of the date your statement is issued. Otherwise, we may not be able to claim a chargeback for you.

4.3. How to lodge a dispute and what happens then

You can request a refund by contacting us (see contact details on back page). Keep all receipts and records of payment arrangements, to help us resolve any dispute as quickly as possible.

We’ll look into your dispute and let you know in writing within 21 days if it’s resolved or if we need more time. If we can’t resolve it within 45 days, we’ll let you know why. Once it’s resolved, we’ll notify you and either refund the transaction or give you a reason for our decision.

4.4. Mistaken internet payments

If you make a mistake (for example, you type in the wrong recipient’s details), let us know straight away and we’ll attempt to recover the money on your behalf using the processes set out in the Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions.

If we are reasonably satisfied that funds have been paid into your account due to another party’s mistake, unauthorised activity or fraud and there are sufficient credit funds in your account, we may debit your account with the amount of the payment you have received and return it to the other party without giving you notice.

4.5. How to close, stop or cancel your account, card or device

You can cancel a card or device via the CommBank app, NetBank, or by calling 13 2221 or by visiting your local branch. If you’d like to place a temporary stop, close or cancel an account, you can visit any branch with appropriate identification or call 13 2221.

If we place a stop on your account, you won’t be able to take money out until we remove the stop. While there’s a stop on your account, your direct debits and refunds can take up to five days to be processed and may be backdated to the transaction date.

Chargeback rights don’t apply to Bpay payments — but if you notify us of a mistake, we’ll do our best to recover the payment. If we can’t do so within 20 business days, you’ll be liable for that amount.
scheduled payments will be stopped as well. We’ll stop your account or cancel a card or device as quickly as we can. When we cancel a card or device, until you have returned it to us, you are also responsible for transactions you or a user make:

- Where the merchant is not required to get authorisation
- When any of our electronic transaction systems are unavailable.

To close a transaction account linked to a NetBank Saver account, you’ll first need to close the NetBank Saver account or link your NetBank Saver account to another transaction account in the same name.

4.6. How to stop a cheque
As long as a cheque hasn’t already been presented, you can ask us to stop payment by calling 13 2221 or visiting your nearest CommBank branch. A fee applies (see 3.2).

4.7. Making a complaint
We try to get things right the first time — but if we don’t, we’ll do what we can to fix it. You can fix most problems simply by talking to us, so if you need to make a complaint, please call us on 1800 805 605. We will:

- Keep a record of your complaint
- Give you a name, reference number and contact details for you to follow up if you want
- Respond to the complaint within 21 days, or tell you we need more time to complete our investigation
- Give our final response within 45 days.

If we can’t complete our investigation within 45 days, we’ll let you know why and give the details of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority — a free, independent dispute resolution service that you can contact if you’re not happy with how we handled your complaint (see contact details on back page).

You give us permission to collect, use and share your information with others as set out in this section and our privacy policy.

6. What you can expect from us

6.1. We follow industry codes of practice

The Banking Code of Practice sets out the standards of practice and service in the Australian banking industry. The relevant provisions of the Banking Code of Practice apply to the products and services covered by these Terms and Conditions. When you carry out an electronic transaction (for example, a purchase transaction or transaction using online, mobile or telephone banking), we comply with ASIC’s ePayments Code.

6.2. Changes to your terms and conditions

We can change your account features, interest rates and fees and any other term of your contract. We’ll act reasonably when exercising these rights and only do so for legitimate business purposes.

3. When you may not be able to access your account

There may be times when you can't use your account — for example, if our systems are down or faulty, or a merchant or ATM won’t accept your card.

4. When we can suspend or close your account, cancel your card, PIN, password or device, or decide not to process a transaction

We can close your account at any time after giving you reasonable notice. We can also close your account, cancel your card, PIN, password or device, or not process a transaction, without notice, if:

- We think your account is being used fraudulently or in a way that might cause you or us to lose money
- We believe on reasonable grounds that you may be a person, or acting for a person:
  - with whom we are not permitted to deal with by law or a regulatory authority
  - in breach of laws relating to money laundering or terrorism financing
- We reasonably consider necessary, for example to comply with laws in Australia or overseas or card scheme rules, manage regulatory risk or, for a transaction, if your instructions are not clear.

We may also cancel your Debit MasterCard or Keycard without notice if you haven’t used it for six months.

Once your account has been closed (by us or at your request), you’ll still be responsible for any transactions you or a user make to that account even after closure. If money is left in your account, we’ll transfer it to another account in your name or send you a cheque — except where we transfer your balance to an unclaimed moneys fund.

5. When we may set off and combine accounts

We may without prior notice:

- Set off the whole or any part of your account balance to satisfy any amount you owe us under other accounts (including loan accounts) held in the same name
- Combine your account with such other accounts.

These rights don’t apply to a loan account regulated by the National Credit Code, but we may exercise our banker’s right to combine accounts.

If we combine your accounts, you’ll have just one balance — and if it is a negative balance, you’ll need to repay us this amount.

1 Notices in writing may be provided electronically - see 2.1.
2 We may give you a shorter notice period, or no notice, of an unfavourable change if we believe doing so is necessary for us to avoid, or to reduce, a material increase in our credit risk or our loss.
6.6. Things we need to do to comply with laws

To comply with laws in Australia or overseas (such as Australia’s obligations to combat tax evasion), we may require additional information and may withhold funds you deposit until you provide it.

For example, if you are the trustee of a trust, you need to tell us if the settlor or any beneficiary of the trust is a tax resident of a country other than Australia. If the settlor or any beneficiary is itself an entity, this requirement applies to all individuals who are an ultimate beneficial owner of that entity.

You may need to obtain (and/or provide on their behalf) each individual’s name, address, date of birth and tax residency details.

Where you are a trustee, you do not have to give us this information in relation to the settlor if their identity is not known or, if they have no ongoing involvement with the trust and their tax residency is not known. In this case, you confirm after reasonable enquiry, that you do not believe the settlor is an overseas tax resident.

You must keep this information up to date, and notify us promptly of any change. To update this additional information:

• From Australia, call 1300 077 141 between 9am – 5pm, Monday – Friday (your local state time)
• From overseas, call +61 2 9283 6096 between 9am – 8pm, Monday – Friday (Sydney/Melbourne Time).

Call charges may apply.

6.7. How you’re protected

The Banking Act’s financial claims scheme covers deposit amounts subject to a limit per depositor. You may be entitled to payment in some circumstances. For more information about the Financial Claims Scheme, visit fcs.gov.au
