Completing the identification form for Australian regulated trusts and trustees
(including self-managed super funds)

Identification and Verification

All clients applying for a new policy must complete the identification procedures for the purposes of Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing laws. In addition, in order to comply with the obligations of the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standard (CRS) we are required to collect further information.

To do this, you need to complete the attached form.

What do I need to complete?

The sections you complete of the attached form depend on what type of trust you are. The table over the page provides you with a guide on which mandatory sections you need to complete as identified by a solid dot (●). For the other sections a brief explanation is provided and will depend on individual circumstances.

You need to identify what type of trust you are.

Are you a:

- Regulated trust eg a Self Managed Superannuation Fund ('SMSF') or a trust that is regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ('ASIC'), the Australian Taxation Office ('ATO') or the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ('APRA')
- registered managed investment scheme (ie managed investment scheme that is registered by ASIC)
- Australian Government superannuation fund (ie a government superannuation fund established under Commonwealth or State/Territory legislation), or
- other regulated trust types?

Will documents in a language other than English be accepted?

Documents that are written in a language that is not English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator. An accredited translator is any person who is currently accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or above.

How do I get a document certified?

To be correctly certified, we need the document(s) to be certified as 'True copy of the original document' and signed by one of the following:

- A person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner
- A judge of a court
- A magistrate
- A chief executive officer of a Commonwealth court
- A registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- A justice of the Peace
- A notary public (for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993)
- A notary public in a foreign country
- A police officer
- (Postal Agent) An agent of the Australian Postal Corporation who is in charge of an office supplying postal services to the public
- (post Office) A permanent employee of The Australian Postal Corporation with two (2) or more years of continuous service who is employed in an office supplying postal services to the public
- An Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer (within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955)
- An officer with, 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more respective financial institutions (eg: bank, building society, credit union or finance company)
- An officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian financial services licence, having two (2) or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees
- A member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia CPA Australian or the National Institute of Accountants with two (2) or more years of continuous membership

The party certifying the ID document(s) will also need to state what position they hold and sign and date the document(s). If the certification does not appear on the document(s), you may be asked to send in new certified documents.
