What is a Target Market Determination?

A Target Market Determination (TMD) describes the cohort of customers that the product is targeted at (the Target Market) and any conditions around how the product is distributed to customers (the Distribution Conditions).

It also describes the events or circumstances where we are required to review the Target Market Determination for a financial product (the Review Triggers).

Why does CommBank need to have Target Market Determinations?

We're required to have Target Market Determinations under law. The purpose of the law is to make sure customers are at the centre of our approach when designing and distributing our financial products. This document is not a substitute for the product's terms and conditions or other disclosure documents.

When making a decision about this product, customers must refer to the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), Terms and Conditions or other disclosure documents.

Target Market

The table below matches the Product Attributes to the Objectives and Needs of the Target Market for this Product. CBA has assessed that the Product including its Key Attributes are likely to be consistent with the Objectives and Needs of the Target Market.

Objectives and Needs	Product Attributes

Financial Situation

The Financial Situation of the Target Market are customers that:

- meet CBA's credit assessment criteria which includes demonstrating the capacity to service the credit card without substantial hardship;
- choose a credit limit typically above $3,000;
- will pay a higher interest rate; and
- will pay a higher monthly fee (if criteria is not met for the fee waiver).

CBA views that its processes in place, including assessing the customer's ability to service the credit card, will mean that the product will likely be consistent with the Financial Situation of the Target Market.

Customers outside of the target market

This product is not targeted at customers who:

- can only service a credit limit typically lower than $3,000;
- require a low cost credit card (e.g. a credit card which has a low interest rate on purchases and low monthly fee);
- do not require access to an awards program or a range of benefits such as complimentary insurances; and/or
- are likely to carry a substantial balance over a prolonged period of time (unless a promotional rate and/or grace period applies).

Eligibility criteria for the Product

To hold this product, customers will need to satisfy certain eligibility criteria, including that customers must:

- be individuals aged 18 years or older;
- have an Australian residential address;
- meet CBA's credit assessment criteria which includes demonstrating the capacity to service the credit card without substantial hardship.

Distribution Conditions

CBA will have oversight over how the product is promoted and issued. All customers must satisfy CBA's credit assessment criteria which demonstrates the customer's capacity to service the credit card. In addition, the below table identifies the distribution channels which the product can be sold through and sets out the conditions that apply to each channel. CBA views that the conditions specified are appropriate and are of a nature that it will be likely that the product will be distributed to the Target Market.
